Flu, Respiratory Disease Spreads Across 30 States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Outbreaks of flu and respiratory disease were reported in 30 states today as the wave of influenza-like illness continued to spread. Health authorities said the peak of the epidemic still appeared several weeks away.
The National Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta said that the presence of the Hong Kong variety of flu was confirmed in 16 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.
Among the notables suffering from the flu were Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston and Gov. Richard J.
Hughes of New Jersey.
Humphrey was forced to cancel a speaking engagement in Los Angeles and Hughes scrapped plans for New Jersey's traditional Christmas tree lighting ceremony in Trenton for fear the gathering might serve to spread the virus.

The NCDC said that for the week ending Dec. 7 there were 700 deaths reported from flu, pneumonia and other respiratory ailments—200 more than the anticipated number. The figure is based on reports from 122 key cities.
Hospitals in several cities including Washington, D.C., Windsor, Ont., and Bridgeport, Conn., tightened visiting regulations in an effort to keep the flu away from patients who do not already have it.
In Chicago the University of Chicago and University of Illinois Research and Education Hospitals were forced to limit admissions to emergency cases because of high absenteeism among the staffs.
The number of college closings continued to grow as the schools recessed early for Christmas vacation in the face of high absenteeism or to avoid an outbreak of the illness.

Seek 3rd Man In Toledo Holdup; Civilian Aids Police

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A man-hunt was on today for a bank robber who escaped with $16,- 000 loot Monday during a gun-fight with police outside the Manhattan branch of the Toledo Trust Co.
Police said the man sought was Kenneth Jones, 38, of Cleveland, described as about 5 feet 7 inches and weighing 160 pounds. He was armed with an automatic weapon, police said.
The bandit's two companions were captured at the scene, one of them wounded seriously in the shootout.
In custody were Rudolph Hudson, 36, of Cleveland, who was under guard in poor condition at St. Vincent's Hospital, and David Grant, 38, of Cleveland.
Police said the third man escaped by using a woman hostage, who finally fell as he dragged her along a street.
A bank spokesman said the three gunmen took $20,000, but a grocery sack containing $4,600 was dropped by one of the trio inside the bank.
Police were alerted to the holdup when a teller triggered an alarm as the gunmen entered the bank minutes after it opened for business.
When officers Richard Pohl and Robert Oberdorf entered the bank one gunman grabbed a customer, Phyllis Vargo, 31, Toledo, and told officers:

"I'll kill her if you shoot."
Rather than risk the woman's life, the policemen backed out and radioed for help.
The armed men came out of the bank firing at the police car, while the one man continued to use Mrs. Vargo as a shield. She stumbled less than a block from the bank and he left her there.
After a second police car arrived and two more officers engaged in the battle, Hudson ran bleeding from behind a car and was tackled by a passing motorist, Richard Lawrence, 38.
Lawrence held Hudson until police took charge.
Grant was captured a short distance from the bank by two more policemen who were dispatched to the scene.

Hard Freeze Holds Grip On South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A hard freeze chilled the deep South again today and drove temperatures down to the teens in parts of northern Florida.
Cross City, some 20 miles inland from the Gulf of Mexico along Florida's West Coast, saw the mercury tumble to 18 degrees before daybreak.
Tampa, near the midpoint on the state's West Coast, had its coldest Dec. 17 in more than 25 years when the temperature dropped to 27.
Readings in the 20s extended northward through the Carolinas and west to Louisiana.
In the West, meanwhile a developing storm system in the central Rockies fattened up on moisture from the gulf and was expected to sweep onto the plains with a combination of rain and snow.
Four inches of snow whitened
Sage Lake City during the night.
Locally heavy snow was forecast in the Colorado Mountains with two inches likely in portions of Nebraska.
Moisture elsewhere over the nation was limited to scatter-ings of rain or snow in the Pacific Northwest and to snow flurries in the northeast.
Temperatures before dawn ranged from 9 below zero at Hibbing, Minn., to 69 at Brownsville, Tex.

Israelis Again Attack Jordan In 'Retaliation'

TEL AVIV (AP)—Israeli
warplanes raided Jordan again today to attack an Arab guerrilla unit which had fired rockets over the cease-fire line, authoritative sources reported.
The sources said several planes were called in when a police patrol came under fire at Kfar Ruppin, in the Beisan Valley 18 miles south of the Sea of Galilee.
The army would not confirm that the air force was called in but said the Jordanians fired two bazooka rockets as well as small arms at the patrol.
"Fire was returned," a spokesman added. "There were no Israeli casualties."

it doesn't go far enough.
Rumor outlined his program Monday night in the Senate, which may vote on it before the

Robert Duncan Named To Ohio Supreme Court

1st Negro Justice To Be Member Of High Tribunal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—
Robert M. Duncan, who will be Ohio's first Negro Supreme Court justice, doesn't want any liberal or conservative labels pinned on him.
"I am a constitutionalist who hopes that the law will be applied equally," Duncan told newsmen shortly after Gov.
James A. Rhodes announced his appointment to the high court bench.
Duncan will succeed Justice
Paul W. Brown, whom Rhodes named earlier Monday to replace U.S. Sen-elect William B.
Saxbe as attorney general.

Duncan, 41, has served as a Columbus Municipal Court judge for more than two years.
Prior to that he was chief counsel in the attorney general's office, an assistant Columbus city attorney and an attorney examiner for the Ohio Bureau of Workmen's Compensation.

Duncan, Brown and Rhodes appeared together at a news conference Monday afternoon.
When Duncan was asked how it felt being the first Negro appointed to the Supreme Court, Rhodes interjected to say:
"We did not appoint a Negro," explaining that he had appointed a qualified judge to the high court.

Duncan, seated with his wife and three children, said he plans to run for election to the post in 1970 and "win."
Brown said he did not consider his appointment, with its $5,000 a year pay cut, "a step down." He called it a "lateral step forward." Brown refused to speculate whether he will run for governor when Rhodes' term expires, but said he would like the job
"if it seems the rational choice of the people."

Stoutsville Man Shot By Daughter

A Stoutsville area man escaped serious injury Monday night when he was shot by his daughter in the midst of a family argument.
Edgar Stevens, Route 1, Stoutsville, was allegedly shot in the right arm by his Monday daughter about 11 p.m. Monday.
Stevens and his wife had been fighting at the time of the incident, according to a report by Pickaway County Sheriff
Dwight Radcliff.
Stevens was treated for the wound, located between the right wrist and elbow, at Berger Hospital, and then released.
Stevens' daughter allegedly shot him with a .22 caliber revolver which she threw away after running from the house following the shooting.

THE gun has not been found, according to the sheriff's department.
Sheriff Radcliff said today a complete investigation of the incident is being conducted by his office.

Apollo 8 Crew Sharpens Skill

Simulator Used As Flight Nears

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—
The Apollo 8 astronauts are using a spacecraft trainer to sharpen skills for their scheduled launching Saturday toward an orbit around the moon.
Air Force Col. Frank Borman,
Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr.
and Air Force Maj. William A.
Anders plan several hours in the simulator today, mainly rehearsing what they'll do as they circle the moon for 20 hours on Christmas Eve and early Christmas Day.
Critical events during this period include the firing of the Apollo 8 engine to place the ship in a lunar orbit ranging from 69 to 196 miles above the surface, of path at the 69-mile altitude and a third ignition to shoot the astronauts out of orbit and start them on the 58-hour trip back to earth.

While circling the moon,
they'll determine how accurately they can navigate by sighting on the stars and on prominent landmarks such as craters and mountains.

At the same time, ground stations will determine how precisely they can track Apollo 8.
Large concentrations of material beneath the moon surface will cause subtle changes in the orbital path, and trackers want to know exactly where these shifts occur.

With present knowledge gained from tracking unmanned lunar orbiters, Anders said recently that moon landing astronauts could miss their target by as much as 48 miles.
"The more Apollo 8 can learn about the moon's gravitational field, the less will be our error when astronauts land," Anders said.

Woman Uses Saw To Commit Suicide

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The death of a North Canton woman whose throat was cut by an electric hand saw Monday has been ruled a suicide by Stark County Coroner G. S. Shaheen.
The body of Kay Kropf, 32, was found Monday afternoon by her mother, who told police her daughter had tried earlier to commit suicide by taking an overdose of sleeping pills.

Electoral College Officially Chooses Nixon As President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Electoral College has made it official—Richard M. Nixon will be the 37th president of the United States.

And many of the 538 members who cast their ballots Monday also made something else clear —they think the college is outdated.

Balloting by the college went pretty much according to script as members met in the 50 state capitals and District of Columbia to fulfill the tasks voters chose them for Nov. 5.

There were exceptions in North Carolina and Michigan that left Nixon with 301 votes instead of 302, Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey wound up with the expected 191, and George Wallace, the third party presidential candidate, got one more than originally expected with 46.

A simple majority of 270 electoral votes were needed to elect.

In North Carolina, Dr. Lloyd
W. Bailey of Rocky Mount, jumped the traces and cast his ballot for Wallace while the other 12 electors voted for Nixon.

"The Electoral College is one part of the system of checks and balances which guarantees that the minority voice can be heard," said Bailey.

In Michigan, former Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency, something of a political maverick, refused to cast his ballot for Humphrey who had won the state's 21 votes.
The other electors picked a replacement to keep the delegation's Humphrey vote intact.

The U.S. Constitution technically allows the electors to vote for any candidate they choose.
But tradition dictates, and some state laws demand, that the electors follow the result of the popular vote in their respective states.

Under the Constitution the popular vote for president actually is an election of the members of the Electoral College.

Government Warns French Students Against Violence

PARIS (AP)—With student unrest on the rise again in France, Premier Maurice Couve de Murville said Monday night the government will tolerate no more university sit-ins.

Four hours after France's largest student organization called for a nationwide class boycott, Couve de Murville asked in a television address for students, teachers and the government to work together.

"Contention must be ended," he declared. "This signifies that politics has no place in the high schools. This signifies that first of all no occupation will be tolerated in the universities."

The student strike call was not considered a serious threat to public order since the Christmas holidays are about to begin. But new campus control measures touched off fist fights and other confrontations between students and police.

At Nanterre University students fought with police and marched through the campus Monday shouting "Down with police repression" after they found national riot police surrounding the university on the outskirts of Paris.

The police were there, according to Education Minister Edgar Faure, to check students' identity cards and "guarantee free access to classes."

Similar identity checks were being made at the Sorbonne, but there were no incidents. At Toulouse University police dragged out 200 students who occupied the administration building, and strikes were in effect at campuses in Bordeaux and Cler-mont-Ferrand.

Cleveland Solons Raise Own Pay

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Cleveland city councilmen will be getting salaries of $12,500 a year beginning Jan. 1, 1970.
Councilmen voted themselves a $4,000-a-year pay increase at Monday night's session.

They currently receive $8,500
a year.
But the $2,700-dollar a year expense allowance they receive will be dropped.

No one appeared at a public hearing Monday to protest the raise.

'Kill For Thrill' Trial Verdict Is Mixed

NEWCASTLE, England (AP)— Britain's sensational "kill for thrills" trial ended today with 11-year-old Mary Flora Bell found guilty of manslaughter with diminished responsibility and her 13-year-old playmate Norma Joyce Bell innocent of all charges. Mary was sentenced to detention for life.

The two girls, unrelated but inseparable friends, had been charged with murder in the strangling of two young boys.
An alternative charge of manslaughter had been placed against them.

Meet To Be Only 2-Sided Or Not At All

PARIS (AP)—The Saigon government's negotiators in Paris say they will yield no further in the dispute over the shape of the table for the Vietnam peace talks.

The South Vietnamese delegation "has gone far enough" and "cannot diverge from the formula of a two-sided conference," delegation officials said.

Saigon's view on the procedural dispute holding up the peace parley was conveyed again to the Americans Monday night at a dinner session of the top allied negotiators: U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and his deputy, Cyrus R.
Vance; South Vietnam's Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky and Ambassador Pham Dang Lam.

Earlier Monday Ky issued a sharp denial of U.S. Defense Secretary Clark M. Clifford's implication that Saigon was much to blame for the continuing delay in the start of the conference. He said ever since Clifford succeeded Robert S.
McNamara, "Secretary Clifford has shown a gift for saying the wrong thing at the wrong time."

The new chief of the Viet Cong delegation, Tran Buu Kiem, censured both the United States and South Vietnam equally upon his arrival from Hanoi Monday. Preparations for the meeting are "being dragged out by the delaying tactics of the United States and the Saigon administration," he told 300 cheering newcomers at the airport. Kiem is considered the foreign minister of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

which the negotiators will sit is

U.S. Attorney At Columbus Quits Jan. 7

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—U.S.
Atty. Robert M. Draper has resigned effective Jan. 7.

Draper noted that he gave unofficial notice of his plans on Nov. 12 to both President-elect
Richard Nixon and Senator Elect William Saxbe. He said he made the notice official Monday night.

A memo prepared by a U.S.
House Republican task force on crime had included Draper's job in a list of recommended changes.

Draper is the highest federal prosecutor in Southern Ohio. He said he informed both Nixon and Saxbe he would be available to help his successor become acquainted with the office.

Draper said he had been withholding formal announcement of his resignation until plans for the future were confirmed. Release of the task force memo prompted him to make the announcement, he said. He has held the job since August, 1966.

Draper, 62, said he plans to return to the private practice of law.

"Our district is one of the fine-est in the country," he said.
Draper said the U.S. attorney is the highest presidential appointee and a direct representative of the administration.

Draper is responsible for 48
Ohio counties and has his office here although he has assistants at Dayton, Cincinnati and Steubenville.

He said the assistants plan to stay on the job to help break in the new staff.

Apollo 8 Crew Sharpens Skill

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Apollo 8 astronauts are using a spacecraft trainer to sharpen skills for their scheduled launching Saturday toward an orbit around the moon.

Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders plan several hours in the simulator today, mainly rehearsing what they'll do as they circle the moon for 20 hours on Christmas Eve and early Christmas Day.

Critical events during this period include the firing of the Apollo 8 engine to place the ship in a lunar orbit ranging from 69 to 196 miles above the surface, of path at the 69-mile altitude and a third ignition to shoot the astronauts out of orbit and start them on the 58-hour trip back to earth.

While circling the moon, they'll determine how accurately they can navigate by sighting on the stars and on prominent landmarks such as craters and mountains.

At the same time, ground stations will determine how precisely they can track Apollo 8. Large concentrations of material beneath the moon surface will cause subtle changes in the orbital path, and trackers want to know exactly where these shifts occur.

With present knowledge gained from tracking unmanned lunar orbiters, Anders said recently that moon landing astronauts could miss their target by as much as 45 miles.

"The more Apollo 8 can learn about the moon's gravitational field, the less will be our error when astronauts land," Anders said.

Electoral College Officially Chooses Nixon As President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Electoral College has made its official choice—Richard M. Nixon will be the 37th president of the United States.

And many of the 538 members who cast their ballots Monday also made something else clear—they think the college is outdated.

Balloting by the college went pretty much according to script as members met in the 50 state capitals and District of Columbia to fulfill the tasks voters chose them for Nov. 5.

There were exceptions in North Carolina and Michigan that left Nixon with 301 votes instead of 302, Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey wound up with the expected 191, and George Wallace, the third party presidential candidate, got one more than originally expected with 46.

A simple majority of 270 electoral votes were needed to elect. In North Carolina, Dr. Lloyd W. Bailey of Rocky Mount, jumped the traces and cast his ballot for Wallace while the other 12 electors voted for Nixon.

"The Electoral College is one part of the system of checks and balances which guarantees that the minority voice can be heard," said Bailey.

In Michigan, former Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency, something of a political maverick, refused to cast his ballot for Humphrey who had won the state's 21 votes. The other electors picked a replacement to keep the delegation's Humphrey vote intact.

The U.S. Constitution technically allows the electors to vote for any candidate they choose. But tradition dictates, and some state laws demand, that the electors follow the result of the popular vote in their respective states.

Under the Constitution the popular vote for president actually is an election of the members of the Electoral College.

"Contention must be ended," he declared. "This signifies that politics has no place in the high schools. This signifies that first of all no occupation will be tolerated in the universities."

The student strike call was not considered a serious threat to public order since the Christmas holidays are about to begin. But new campus court measures touched off fist fights and other confrontations between students and police.

At Nanterre University students fought with police and marched through the campus Monday shouting "Down with police repression" after they found national riot police surrounding the university on the outskirts of Paris.

The police were there, according to Education Minister Edgar Faure, to check students' identity cards and "guarantee free access to classes."

Similar identity checks were being made at the Sorbonne, but there were no incidents. At Toulouse University police dragged out 200 students who occupied the administration building, and strikes were in effect at campuses in Bordeaux and Clermont-Ferrand.

Meet To Be Only 2-Sided Or Not At All

PARIS (AP)—The Saigon government's negotiators in Paris say they will yield no further in the dispute over the shape of the table for the Vietnam peace talks.

The South Vietnamese delegation "has gone far enough" and "cannot diverge from the formula of a two-sided conference," delegation officials said.

Saigon's view on the procedural dispute holding up the peace parley was conveyed again to the Americans Monday night at a dinner session of the top allied negotiators: U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and his deputy, Cyrus R. Vance; South Vietnam's Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky and Ambassador Phan Dang Lam.

Earlier Monday Ky issued a sharp denial of U.S. Defense Secretary Clark M. Clifford's implication that Saigon was much to blame for the continuing delay in the start of the conference. He said ever since Clifford succeeded Robert S. McNamara, "Secretary Clifford has shown a gift for saying the wrong thing at the wrong time."

The new chief of the Viet Cong delegation, Tran Buu Kiem, censured both the United States and South Vietnam equally upon his arrival from Hanoi Monday. Preparations for the meeting are "being dragged out by the delaying tactics of the United States and the Saigon administration," he told 300 cheering newcomers at the airport. Kiem is considered the foreign minister of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

Nixon, U Thant To Meet, Talk Of U.N. Ambassador

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect Nixon, meeting today with Secretary-General U Thant of the United Nations, definitely will announce by the end of the week his Democratic choice as U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations.

In advance of Nixon's Thant meeting, Ronald L. Ziegler, press spokesman for the president-elect, said Nixon's choice for the U.N. job would be announced this week - leaving open the possibility he might let the secretary - general be the first to know.

Nixon asked to see Thant in a move described by Ziegler as one designed to demonstrate "Mr. Nixon's support of the United Nations."

Perhaps more significantly, he added that the session alongside the East River would open communications between the incoming chief executive and the head of the world organization.

Going to the UN with Nixon were his secretary of stateinate William P. Rogers; his national security advisor, Henry A. Kissinger; Robert D. Murphy, his go-between with the Johnson administration, and J. Russell Wiggins, President Johnson's recently-installed replacement as ambassador to the United Nations.

Sargent Shriver, ambassador to France and and brother-in-law of Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., remained the principal betting favorite in whatever contest there might be for the U.N. ambassadorship. However, it was clear that, with the passage of days, the potential Shriver nomination was becoming less likely—perhaps because of objections from within the Kennedy family. The possibility arose that the position would go again to Wiggins or, by more remote chance, perhaps to Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., classed as a far outsider who nevertheless has been in repeated contact with Nixon and has hedged when asked about continued service in the Senate.

the focal issue in the quarrel over arrangements for the conference because the shape will symbolize the status of the NLF at the talks.

The Communists say the NLF is the authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people and rates a full position at a four-sided conference. Washington and Saigon do not recognize the NLF except as outlaws and hence claim the parity is two-sided—between the allies and their Communist opponents.

Hanoi negotiators started with a proposal for a square table. Their latest offer is an unadorned round table. U.S. negotiators have gone from a long rectangular table to a divided doughnut shape, their most recent compromise proposal.

Wealthy Florida Man's Daughter Said Kidnaped

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Twenty-year-old coed Barbara Jane Mackle, daughter of a wealthy Florida land developer, was kidnaped in her nightgown from an Atlanta motel early today by a shotgun-wielding duo, her mother told DeKalb County police.

Mrs. Mackle reported that her daughter, a junior at Emory University in Atlanta, was taken at gunpoint after the kidnappers gained entry by claiming to be from a police agency.

The account of the incident was given by Mrs. Mackle in a complaint of "kidnaping at gunpoint" released by police to the news media.

Two Forgery Cases Heard By County Court

Two forgery cases were heard in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court Monday.

Tonya Green, Clarksburg, had been indicted by the September term Grand Jury for uttering and publishing a forged check for $70 under her previous married name.

Robert Stamper, Cincinnati, was the second of three men indicted for forgery of a $129 check passed at Binman's Drug Store June 21, 1968.

Mrs. Green first appeared in court during September when she entered a plea of guilty to the charge of forging a check. At that time she asked for probation.

Upon indication from the bench that she would not be granted probation, Mrs. Green withdrew her plea and asked that an attorney be appointed for her by the court.

The defendant appeared in court several times after the first arraignment requesting legal counsel. She was confined to the Pickaway County Jail from the time of her indictment in September until final dispensation of her case Monday.

On Monday she was represented by Attorney David Kraft of Ashville. At that time, on motion of County Prosecutor Robert Huffer, the charge of forgery was reduced to issuing a check with insufficient funds. A plea of guilty was entered to the reduced charge.

Mrs. Green was placed on three years' probation by Judge William Ammer.

Testimony in the case of Robert Stamper took approximately three hours Monday morning. The jury was out 25 minutes before returning a verdict of "guilty."

During the trial Eddie Isome, another one of the three men indicted by the Grand Jury for the forgery, appeared to identify Stamper. Isome had previously been found guilty of the charge and sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary for 1-20 years.

After hearing Stamper's final comments to the court, and following a delay caused by pronouncement of the wrong sentence, Stamper was sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary for 1-20 years.

Jurors for the trial were Catherine Hawks, Lloyd Davis, Luella Lape, Forrest Easterday, Arthur Bowman, Floyd Mouser, Dallas Valentine, Eva Hemperker, Lawrence Hoover, Thelma Stiles, Carl Law, Donald Gaines and Maxine Gerlach.

Helmandollar Goes Before Grand Jury

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A federal judge ruled today that city Police Sgt. Melvin Helmandollar will have purged himself of contempt of court when he answers all questions asked by a federal grand jury.

Helmandollar, who spent eight days in jail for refusing to testify before the jury, was expected to be the only witness called by the jury in today's session.

U. S. District Court Judge Joseph P. Kinneary delivered the purge ruling 30 minutes before Helmandollar entered the jury room.

The grand jury, probing tax statements of some city officials and the arrest of three federal agents outside a Columbus bar last summer, recessed when Helmandollar went to jail Dec. 3 on a civil contempt charge.

It reconvened for what was expected to be a one-day session.

U. S. District Court Judge Joseph P. Kinneary ordered him jailed after he declined to answer some questions asked by attorneys of the U.S. Justice Department's Organized Crime Section of the Criminal Division.

On Dec. 11 the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals ordered him released on bond and Helmandollar then announced he would testify before the jury.

Westfall Hires Teacher At Monroe

Mrs. Maurine Trimble of Mt. Sterling, has been employed by the Westfall board of education to relieve the crowded condition at Monroe School.

Mrs. Trimble will assume her duties Jan. 6. She was employed by the Westfall School District Board of Education Monday during its regular monthly meeting.

In other action taken by the Westfall board, a resolution to participate in Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act was approved. Richard Everman was named coordinator for Title I projects.

The board joined the Ohio School Boards Assn.
A report on guidelines for free and reduced cost lunches for children was received.

The board granted the John Deere Co. permission to use Darby Twp. School Feb. 24.

Teays Valley Board Hires Architect

The Teays Valley Board of Education Monday named the firm of Wells and Rettig as architects to design a proposed new building for the district.

Wells and Rettig are successors to McLaughlin and Kyle, the original architects for the Teays Valley High School building.

The Teays Valley district's elementary schools are overcrowded. The board feels that the middle school for grades six, seven and eight may be the best solution to the problem.

The elementary grades through the sixth grade will continue to attend at the present elementary sites in the district.

However, no definite plans will be made until a thorough study of the needs of the district in relation to its projected growth is completed, according to Benis Lutz, the school district superintendent.

ignate William P. Rogers; his national security advisor, Henry A. Kissinger; Robert D. Murphy, his go-between with the Johnson administration, and J. Russell Wiggins, President Johnson's recently-installed replacement as ambassador to the United Nations.

Sargent Shriver, ambassador to France and and brother-in-law of Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., remained the principal betting favorite in whatever contest there might be for the U.N. ambassadorship. However, it was clear that, with the passage of days, the potential Shriver nomination was becoming less likely—perhaps because of objections from within the Kennedy family. The possibility arose that the position would go again to Wiggins or, by more remote chance, perhaps to Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., classed as a far outsider who nevertheless has been in repeated contact with Nixon and has hedged when asked about continued service in the Senate.

the focal issue in the quarrel over arrangements for the conference because the shape will symbolize the status of the NLF at the talks.

The Communists say the NLF is the authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people and rates a full position at a four-sided conference. Washington and Saigon do not recognize the NLF except as outlaws and hence claim the parley is two-sided—between the allies and their Communist opponents.

Hanoi negotiators started with a proposal for a square table. Their latest offer is an undivided round table. U.S. negotiators have gone from a long rectangular table to a divided doughnut shape, their most recent compromise proposal.

Wealthy Florida Man's Daughter Said Kidnaped

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Twenty-year-old coed Barbara Jane Mackle, daughter of a wealthy Florida land developer, was kidnaped in her nightgown from an Atlanta motel early today by a shotgun-wielding duo, her mother told DeKalb County police.

Mrs. Mackle reported that her daughter, a junior at Emory University in Atlanta, was taken at gunpoint after the kidnapers gained entry by claiming to be from a police agency.

The account of the incident was given by Mrs. Mackle in a complaint of "kidnaping at gunpoint" released by police to the news media.

AFL-CIO Boycotts International Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany has announced a boycott of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions until it rejects membership to a new alliance including Walter Reuther's auto workers.

Meany told a news conference Monday he considers the Alliance for Labor Action, formed by the United Auto Workers and Teamsters Union which are both non-AFL-CIO members, a rival organization.

Two Forgery Cases Heard By County Court

Two forgery cases were heard in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court Monday.

Tonya Green, Clarksburg, had been indicted by the September term Grand Jury for uttering and publishing a forged check for $70 under her previous married name.

Robert Stamper, Cincinnati, was the second of three men indicted for forgery of a $129 check passed at Bingman's Drug Store June 21, 1968.

Mrs. Green first appeared in court during September when she entered a plea of guilty to the charge of forging a check. At that time she asked for probation.

Upon indication from the bench that she would not be granted probation, Mrs. Green withdrew her plea and asked that an attorney be appointed for her by the court.

The defendant appeared in court several times after the first arraignment requesting legal counsel. She was confined to the Pickaway County Jail from the time of her indictment in September until final dispensation of her case Monday.

On Monday she was represented by Attorney David Kraft of Ashville. At that time, on motion of County Prosecutor Robert Huffer, the charge of forgery was reduced to issuing a check with insufficient funds. A plea of guilty was entered to the reduced charge.

Mrs. Green was placed on three years' probation by Judge William Ammer.

Testimony in the case of Robert Stamper took approximately three hours Monday morning. The jury was out 25 minutes before returning a verdict of "guilty."

During the trial Eddie Isome, another one of the three men indicted by the Grand Jury for the forgery, appeared to identify Stamper. Isome had previously been found guilty of the charge and sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary for 120 years.

After hearing Stamper's final comments to the court, and following a delay caused by pronouncement of the wrong sentence, Stamper was sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary for 120 years.

Jurors for the trial were Catherine Hawks, Lloyd Davis, Luella Lape, Forrest Easterday, Arthur Bowman, Floyd Mouser, Dallas Valentine, Eva Hempker, Lawrence Hoover, Thelma Stiles, Carl Law, Donald Gaines and Maxine Gerlach.

Four Inducted Into Service

Four Pickaway County registrants were inducted into the armed services last week at Ft. Hayes Induction Center, Columbus.

Reporting for duty with the U.S. Army were Tommy K. Hamilton of Route 2, Williamsport, a volunteer; John G. Rush, Route 1, Orient; David L. Rowland, Route 1, Orient; and Rodney W. Hedges, 321 S. Washington St.

Prior to departure from Circleville, the inductees were served coffee and doughnuts, donated by Lindsey's Bakery and served by Red Cross Volunteers. A gift packet including writing materials was also presented to each man by Red Cross and Sertoma Club.

Helmandollar Goes Before Grand Jury

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A federal judge ruled today that city Police Sgt. Melvin Helmandollar will have purged himself of contempt of court when he answers all questions asked by a federal grand jury.

Helmandollar, who spent eight days in jail for refusing to testify before the jury, was expected to be the only witness called by the jury in today's session.

U. S. District Court Judge Joseph P. Kinneary delivered the purge ruling 30 minutes before Helmandollar entered the jury room.

The grand jury, probing tax statements of some city officials and the arrest of three federal agents outside a Columbus bar last summer, recessed when Helmandollar went to jail Dec. 3 on a civil contempt charge.

It reconvened for what was expected to be a one-day session.

U. S. District Court Judge Joseph P. Kinneary ordered him jailed after he declined to answer some questions asked by attorneys of the U.S. Justice Department's Organized Crime Section of the Criminal Division.

On Dec. 11 the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals ordered him released on bond and Helmandollar then announced he would testify before the jury.

Westfall Hires Teacher At Monroe

Mrs. Maurine Trimble of Mt. Sterling, has been employed by the Westfall board of education to relieve the crowded condition at Monroe School.

Mrs. Trimble will assume her duties Jan. 6. She was employed by the Westfall School District Board of Education Monday during its regular monthly meeting.

In other action taken by the Westfall board, a resolution to participate in Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act was approved. Richard Everman was named coordinator for Title I projects.

The board joined the Ohio School Boards Assn.

A report on guidelines for free and reduced cost lunches for children was received.

Holiday Thief Takes Christmas Trees

Someone short of funds must have been busy planning for Christmas Monday night.

Judy Binkley of Brown and Ohio Sts. reported that four Christmas trees were stolen from near her house during the evening. The trees were valued at $5 each.

Teays Valley Board Hires Architect

The Teays Valley Board of Education Monday named the firm of Wells and Rettig as architects to design a proposed new building for the district.

Wells and Rettig are successors to McLaughlin and Kyle, the original architects for the Teays Valley High School building.

The Teays Valley district's elementary schools are overcrowded. The board feels that the middle school for grades six, seven and eight may be the best solution to the problem.

The elementary grades through the sixth grade will continue to attend at the present elementary sites in the district.

However, no definite plans will be made until a thorough study of the needs of the district in relation to its projected growth is completed, according to Benis Lutz, the school district superintendent.

Mail Route Merger Is Protested

The recommended proposal by postal inspectors to consolidate mail deliveries from New Holland is being protested by the village Chamber of Commerce.

The alteration would consolidate the two rural mail routes and transfer a part of New Holland's Rural Route 1 to the Clarksburg Post Office.

Petitions protesting the consolidation are in circulation by chamber members who contend that mail normally delivered by noon would not be delivered to some of the routes until afternoon if consolidation is approved.

Television Stolen

A television set was stolen from the Clarence Donaldson home on Route 1, Ashville, according to a report by Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Bill Dountz.

Donaldson told the deputy that someone had apparently entered his unlocked home sometime Friday night and taken the portable set. He stated that he had not reported the theft earlier because he thought his wife had taken it with her when she went to visit a friend.

Value of the set was estimated by Donaldson at $149.

Cincinnati Area Absenteeism High Due To Illness

CINCINNATI (AP) — Varieties of influenza are blamed for a number of Greater Cincinnati public service agencies and companies currently experiencing high absenteeism due to illness.

Cincinnati police one day last week recorded 38 absentees, more than five times the number of a normal sicklist day. Through the first 15 days of December, there were 83 sidelined city firemen, comparable to 31 for the same 1967 period.

One of every five workers among the 15,000 employees at General Electric's Evendale plant either checked with the company infirmary or missed work.

The Cincinnati Post Office's 5,100 employees had an illness jump from 3 1/2 to 5.5 per cent, postmaster Joseph Scanlon reported.

NEW YORK (AP) — Student demands for a greater voice in school affairs have led to a rash of U.S. campus disorders during the first quarter of the 1968-69 academic year.

Protests involving violence have been staged against campus recruiting by industry, government agencies and the U.S. armed forces.

Negro students in many schools have clashed with police or college officials in demonstrations for recognition of their rights and a larger share of enrollments.

In New York, grade and high school boys and girls invaded the subway system and damaged equipment because the board of education decreed a longer school day to make up time lost in a teachers' strike.

Uniformed ROTC students were formed into guard patrols at Kansas State University after a fire described by the authorities as arson burned down a gymnasium.

At California's College of San Mateo a force of 350 police turned out to keep order in the wake of a rampage by 150 students, most of them Negroes, which left 12 persons injured and $5,000 damage to property.

Officials of San Francisco State College closed down the school early for the Christmas-New Year holidays after days of turmoil involving demands by teachers and students for more autonomy.

Two scores of Negro students of Washington University in St. Louis held possession of two campus buildings in an eight-day sit-in touched off by a claim that a Negro graduate student was roughed up by four campus police officers.

At Ohio's Kent State University

300 Negro students boycotted classes for four days after a rowdy demonstration against recruiters from the Oakland, Calif., police department. About 60 black students of Akron State University took part in a sympathy strike.

A student group of 300 opposed to campus recruitment by defense industries and government agencies carried out seven weeks of demonstrations at the University of Connecticut. The state police finally read the riot act to the demonstrators and arrested 67.

At Brown University in Rhode Island 40 Negro students stayed away from classes four days, demanding increased financial aid for blacks and a higher enrollment quota. The school agreed to raise the number of student body places reserved for Negro males by 5.6 per cent next year and to set aside 11 percent more places for Negro girls at Pembroke, a sister school.

Three buildings at predominantly Negro Lemoyne-Owen College in Memphis, Tenn., were seized and held for two days by 50 students and outside militants following a campus membership campaign by black power groups.

The school year opened inauspiciously at the University of Illinois, where 240 students protesting alleged housing discrimination against Negro enrollees by seizing the Student Union building. Officials estimated damage to the building at $5,000.

Borman Wants U.S. 1st To Make Trip Around Moon

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With America apparently given the chance to beat Russian cosmonauts around the moon, an Apollo 8 astronaut says he has "a great deal of hope" his flight scores that space first at Christmastime.

"I certainly don't think we will lose any of the value of it if we perhaps don't do it first, but I would be less than candid if I said that I would like to be second in doing it," said Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Apollo 8 commander.

"I think it's a healthy competition," however, Borman said in a recent interview. "I think that competition is healthy in any endeavor, whether it's college football or business or national policies.

"The feeling that they're all bad and we're all good—I don't look at it that way at all. I think what we've done is this program has been well thought out and aided immensely by the Russian progress, to be perfectly frank," the astronaut observed.

Unless the Soviet Union pulls a surprise, Borman and his two copilots—Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders—could become the first men to fly around the moon.

The trio are scheduled to blast off Saturday at 7:51 a.m. EST to begin a six-day mission that will take them around the moon 10 times Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

If Russia planned to launch men moonward this month, the most opportune time to do so was from Dec. 2 to Dec. 8, with the last day being the best. During that period, the moon was a good target in relation to Soviet launch pads.

Earth Shock Hits Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — A strong earthquake woke residents of south-central Alaska this morning, but first reports indicated there was no major damage.

The rolling quake, which lasted about a minute in the Anchorage area, set off burglar alarms, knocked stock from grocery store shelves and rattled windows.

The U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey seismological observatory at College, Alaska, said the earthquake registered 6.5 on the Richter scale. Its epicenter was approximately 160 miles southwest of here, in an isolated area. Alaska's Good Friday earthquake in 1964 registered 8.5 on the scale.

The Survey's observatory at Palmer said it appeared the earthquake would not cause tidal wave activity.

The quake occurred at 2:08 a.m.

PETTIT'S

Study of Metric System

This country may soon start moving toward the metric system of measurement. But don't look for instant conversions.

Congress has authorized a study by the secretary of commerce of the feasibility of metric use. This is the closest the nation has come to adopting the system of measurement now used by 90 percent of the world's inhabitants.

But if the study should recommend metric conversion, and Congress agreed, it would be no quick or easy process. As a start, all the nation's maps, charts and industrial measurements would have to be changed. The cost could be in the billions of dollars.

This is why even proponents of the metric system say it may take a full generation to adopt the new measuring system fully.

Adding impetus to metric consideration is the fact Britain, the country which invented the English inch, is changing to metric gradually. The only major non-metric countries today are Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United States.

Since measurement also is a universal language, arguments for the metric system carry increasing weight.

Sonic Boom Problem

Two recent studies of the effects of sonic booms have shown that severe noises are rapidly becoming more than a nuisance. The Interior Department has summed up its study by describing the sound effects of proposed supersonic commercial airliners as equivalent to a tractor-trailer truck going by, 300 feet away, at 60 miles an hour.

National Park Service personnel in Arizona have reported cliffs toppled by sonic booms. And officials at the Air Force Academy in Colorado still shudder at the 300 windows which were shattered, injuring 15 persons, by a sonic boom.

Supersonic airliners are approaching faster than any method to control their boom. Recent tests of simulated effects of such faster-than-sound craft have shown it to be imperative that Congress enact legislation to protect the public from the very real hazards such craft could spread across the nation.

Yours For Justice

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

At the annual Freedom House dinner in New York City they gave a Freedom Award to the dissident Yugoslav Communist, or ex-Communist, Milovan Djilas, whose books, "The New Class" and "Conversations With Stalin," have so displeased Marshal Tito.

It was the strangest of evenings. Djilas, a man of great moral and physical courage, was actually allowed by the Tito dictatorship to visit the U. S. and make anti-Soviet speeches for western consumption despite the fact that he is not permitted to attack Moscow on Yugoslav soil. At home every time Djilas writes a new book he is clapped in jail. But here he was on a dias at the Hotel Roosevelt in Manhattan, undertaking a trip that must have symbolic value to Tito in pushing the Yugoslav war of nerves against the Russians. When a dictatorship uses its distinguished intellectual prisoners as pawns in foreign policy, it is, to say the least, a matter for ironical reflection. Is it a victory for righteousness? Or only for cynicism?

I asked Djilas why they let him out? It was as a gesture to the West, he said. Before leaving to return home he left the manuscript of his new book, "The Unperfect State," in the hands of his publisher, William Jovanovich of Harcourt, Brace and World. Presumably, when the book hits the American book stores next April, Tito will send Djilas back to jail. This, no doubt, as a gesture to the East — or at least to the eastern idea that intellectuals have no rights that are unconnected with their usefulness to the State, or the Establishment, or whatever you want to call the possessors of de facto power.

It took plenty of courage for Djilas to write "The New Class," an attack on the inhumanity of all Marxist bureaucracies, and let it see the light of day while still living in a Communist country. But certain demonstrators who paraded up and down in front of the Hotel Roosevelt resented the fact that Freedom House had chosen to give Djilas an award. They carried banners that read: "Djilas, Murderer." And one of them, breaking into the ballroom in the middle of Djilas's speech of acceptance, shouted something about "Djilas, the Eichmann of Yugoslavia."

The raucous dissenters against the idea of rewarding the dissenter were New York Serbs who had been driven out of Yugoslavia by no less a person than Djilas himself. This was when Djilas was Tito's right hand man in fighting the patriot Colonel Draja Mihailovich, who also wanted to run the country once Hitler had been driven out of the Balkans. Mihailovich, a non-Communist, lost out because Winston Churchill, quite incomprehensibly, preferred to work with Tito, the Marxist. The Mihailovich Serbs had long memories; they were still thinking of Djilas, a Montenegrin, as a Communist, and as a sycophant of Stalin. They recalled that Djilas and other Titoists of the World War II period had praised Stalin for his "pure conscience and unselfish heart."

Well, we all live and learn. The picketers should have been told to go home and read the Gospel According to St. Luke, Chapter Fifteen, Verse Seven, which says that "joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance." For, as Djilas attacked the inhumanity of Communism, it was obvious that he is a thoroughly repentant man.

Even so, there was a certain disproportion to the evening. John Dos Passos, the novelist who used to be a hero to U. S. liberals, sat in the audience as Djilas took the award. It so happened that Dos Passos had discovered the truth about the "new class" of Communist bureaucrats while covering the civil war in Spain in the Nineteen Thirties. For writing the same sort of thing that Djilas now writes, Dos Passos was reviled by his old Leftist friends. Another person in the audience was William L. White, the publisher of the Emporia Gazette, who anticipated Djilas's conclusions about Stalin by at least a decade when he made a trip to Moscow towards the end of World War II. Bill White put his conclusions into a book back in the 1945 period, and was promptly lynched (intellectually, of course) by the New York liberals of the day. Nice persons, those liberals.

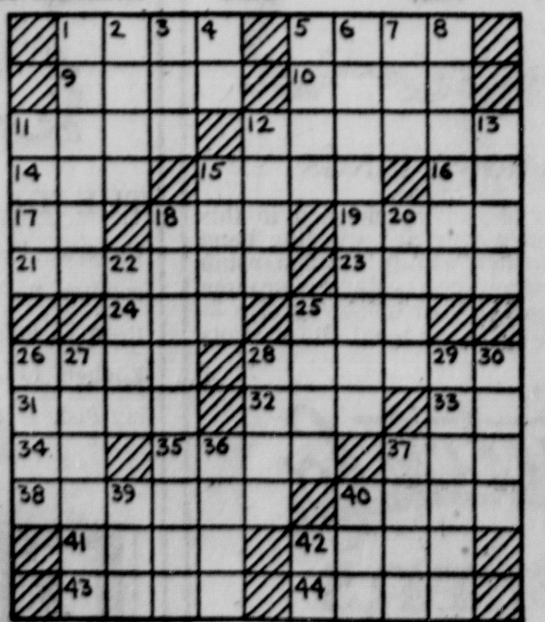

I would not for a moment deprive Djilas of his Freedom Award. I honor the man for changing his mind about Communism. But won't someone, some time, pause to honor people like Dos Passos and Bill White, who broke with prevailing liberal opinion in the U. S. about Communism when it took guts to do it? Maybe not quite the same guts that Djilas possesses, but something that can be called the courage to exhibit "grace under pressure" nonetheless?

Yours for justice, as Djilas himself might say.

When he said no, the doctor moved closer and asked "How about now?" Modern, mature doctors, after many years of practice, allow themselves the luxury of saying to a new patient "I don't know what you have yet, but I will find out." This attitude is a very important one. Patients, because of their anxiety, understandably want an immediate diagnosis, intensive treatment and a rapid cure.

It takes astute judgment, painstaking testing and consultations with specialists to arrive at an exact diagnosis in difficult cases. Patients occasionally question such intensive investigation and frequently disappear from the medical scene because they are "in a hurry." This takes them from doctor to doctor looking for the quick easy answer and eventually, finding total disappointment because their recovery is delayed.

It is a law of medicine that says when the diagnosis is established, the treatment clearly follows in most cases. Patients sometimes put pressure on doctors for treatment with antibiotics, cortisone and a variety of drugs, when actually their cooperation and patience is needed to arrive at a positive conclusion. This understanding of the doctor's position helps to solidify the relationship between the patient and the doctor and serves as a valuable asset in the present and in future illnesses of the family.

Doctors want their patients to understand that they are mere mortals and have all the frailties of humans. They do not want to be considered to have any special magical potions or possess a wand, which, when waved over the patient's head, clears them of all their illnesses.

It is a great art and science to be a doctor. It is a great art to be an excellent patient. Respect for each other's rights and responsibilities is the essence of this treasured relationship.

Thermometers, X-rays, stethoscopes and flashlights give a doctor an excellent insight into the problem of his patients in his office and in hospitals. By his past judgment and training he has learned the importance of some complaints and the relative unimportance of others.

There is one wonderful criterion of the health of a hospitalized patient that

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — George P. Shultz, chosen by President-elect Nixon as his secretary of labor, considers unemployment among young nonwhites as a "large, serious and growing" problem underlying urban unrest.

Shultz meticulously dissected the dilemma of ghetto unemployment early this year in an address before the Center for Policy Study, based at the University of Chicago, where he is dean of the Graduate School of Business.

In the paper, which Shultz reworked this summer, the next labor secretary revealed himself as in favor of innovation and a "flavor of experimentation," and as a man who believes that slum residents should be heavily involved in their own job-opportunity programs.

Shultz said that private money inevitably must be involved in developing training programs and jobs for young nonwhites. He said he foresees a large role for corporate-government efforts and suggested a novel financing method.

The method would involve an annual appropriation of funds by Congress, but buying power would then be given to individuals, though not necessarily in the form of money.

"A person could receive credits entitling him to $5,000 worth of training, counseling and wage subsidy benefits. It would be up to him to exercise these credits to his best advantage, as in the operation of the G.I. Bill," he said.

Shultz conceded that this approach unnerves some planners, but maintained that if experimented with, the rewards might be great both for the job seeker and the school system.

"The expectation would be," he said, "that new or drastically altered institutions of training would emerge, tailored much more to the needs of the disadvantaged."

"Alternatively or concurrently, experimental schools might be established in the ghetto, directly addressing themselves to the problems of their people without respect to the rest of the school system."

Shultz suggested that a federal-city-neighborhood private school might be established in the slums, operated by a non-school system group, specifically for experimentation on such education problems.

One objective, he said, would be to place control in the hands of the people to be helped, and to encourage the development of an education system keyed to the problems of ghetto unemployment.

In stating his opinions, Shultz observed that "unemployment today is a disease that is endemic among nonwhite teenagers while the general population enjoys robust health."

While joblessness among whites declined from 1961 to 1967, he observed, the unemployment rate for teen-age nonwhites remained the same at 28 per cent, or seven times the national average.

Shultz said the enlistment of the private sector was desirable but that it raised issues of its own. What, he asked, should be done about tardy workers, absences, conflicts, unproductiveness? How should a company maintain its efficiency while forced to be more tolerant and permissive?

To discharge the employee, he contended, would hardly solve the problem. Instead, he suggested the unsatisfactory worker might be dropped from one company but automatically employed by another firm.

Shultz expressed his thoughts at a conference on "Race and Unemployment" held by the Center for Policy Study, and organization founded in 1965 to promote dialogue between scholars and public figures.

Oscar Contenders

By BOB THOMAS

AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — 'Tis the season for trade-paper ad salesmen to be jolly and for film critics to be sullen. The reason: The Oscar race has begun.

The trade papers are starting to bulge with ads calling attention to this performance and that. Academy voters are invited to present membership cards at local box offices for a free view of Oscar hopefuls.

The film critics are cursing the film companies' habit of glutting the holiday market with top attractions. The purpose is two-fold: to lure customers during the lush Christmas season; to meet the Dec. 31 deadline for academy consideration.

A glance over the Oscar possibilities indicates that 1968 was not a bumper-crop year. There were some acceptable entertainment films, but few that were as innovative as last year's "Bonnie and Clyde" and "The Graduate."

Here are the films which the companies hope will win best-picture nominations: "The Lion in Winter," "Rachel, Rachel," "Isadora," "Romeo and Juliet," "The Subject Was Roses," "Star!," "Fences," "The Fixer," "Hell in the Pacific," "Planet of the Apes," "Candy," "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," "Finian's Rainbow."

A lengthy list, including some titles that won't be seriously considered. With some of the contenders still unseen, it appears that "The Lion in Winter" is the leader thus far.

Also in contention: Peter O'Toole, "The Lion in Winter"; Jack Albertson, "The Subject Was Roses"; Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon, "The Odd Couple"; Cliff Robertson, "Charley"; Lee Marvin and Toshiko Miura, "Hell in the Pacific"; Rod Steiger, "The Sergeant"; Ron Moody, "Oliver"; Alan Arkin, "The Heart is a Lonely Hunter"; Kirk Douglas, "The Brotherhood"; Julian Mayfield, "Uptight"; Patrick McGowan, "Ice Station Zebra"; Alan Bates, "The Fixer"; Charlton Heston, "Planet of the Apes."

Best actresses—The year saw a number of strong female performances, although the movies are predominantly a man's world. Katharine Hepburn is a good bet to win her second Oscar in a row for "The Lion in Winter." If she did, it would be the first time that a star has won three awards.

Providing strong contention are Joanne Woodward for "Rachel, Rachel"; Barbra Streisand, "Funny Girl"; Mia Farrow, "Rosemary's Baby"; and "Secret Ceremony"; Patricia Neal, "The Subject Was Roses"; Vanessa Redgrave, "Isadora" and "The Seagull"; Beryl Reid and Susanah York in "The Killing of Sister George"; plus Anne Heywood, "The Fixer"; Julie Andrews, "Star!"; and Joanne Shimkus, "Cita."

Best directors—It looks like a warm race, with possibilities as Anthony Harvey, "The Lion in Winter"; Paul Newman, "Rachel, Rachel"; William Wyler, "Funny Girl"; Stanley Kubrick, "2001"; Carol Reed, "Oliver!"; John Frankenheimer, "The Fixer"; Franco Zeffirelli, "Romeo and Juliet"; Roman Polanski, "Rosemary's Baby"; Martin Ritt, "The Brotherhood"; John Cassavetes, "Faces"; Gene Saks, "The Odd Couple"; Jules Dassin, "Uptight"; Karel Reisz, "Isadora"; Sidney Lumet, "The Sea Gull"; Peter Yates, "Bullitt"; Ulu Grosbard, "The Subject Was Roses." At this early stage, the front-runner appears to be Anthony Harvey.

Shultz suggested that a federal-city-neighborhood private school might be established in the slums, operated by a non-school system group, specifically for experimentation on such education problems.

One objective, he said, would be to place control in the hands of the people to be helped, and to encourage the development of an education system keyed to the problems of ghetto unemployment.

In stating his opinions, Shultz observed that "unemployment today is a disease that is endemic among nonwhite teenagers while the general population enjoys robust health."

While joblessness among whites declined from 1961 to 1967, he observed, the unemployment rate for teen-age nonwhites remained the same at 28 per cent, or seven times the national average.

Shultz said the enlistment of the private sector was desirable but that it raised issues of its own. What, he asked, should be done about tardy workers, absences, conflicts, unproductiveness? How should a company maintain its efficiency while forced to be more tolerant and permissive?

To discharge the employee, he contended, would hardly solve the problem. Instead, he suggested the unsatisfactory worker might be dropped from one company but automatically employed by another firm.

Shultz expressed his thoughts at a conference on "Race and Unemployment" held by the Center for Policy Study, and organization founded in 1965 to promote dialogue between scholars and public figures.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Tuesday, December 17, the 352nd day of 1968. There are 14 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1903, Orville and Wilbur Wright made the first successful airplane flights as they soared over sand dunes near Kitty Hawk, N. C.

On this date: In 1807, the American poet, John Greenleaf Whittier, was born in Haverhill, Mass.

In 1830, the South American patriot and liberator, Simon Bolivar, died in Colombia.

In 1914, Britain proclaimed a protectorate over Egypt.

In 1939 the German crew of the pocket battleship, "Graf Spee," scuttled the ship off Montevideo, Uruguay. British warships were in pursuit.

In 1941, the Japanese began an invasion of North Borneo.

Five years ago: President Lyndon B. Johnson told the United Nations the United States wants the cold war ended "once and for all."

One year ago: 16 bodies were recovered and 41 more persons were reported missing after an Ohio river bridge collapsed at Point Pleasant, W. Va.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — 'Tis the season for trade-paper ad salesmen to be jolly and for film critics to be sullen. The reason: the Oscar race has begun.

The trade papers are starting to bulge with ads calling attention to this performance and that. Academy voters are invited to present membership cards at local box offices for a free view of Oscar hopefuls.

The film critics are cursing the film companies' habit of glutting the holiday market with top attractions. The purpose is two-fold: to lure customers during the lush Christmas season; to meet the Dec. 31 deadline for academy consideration.

A glance over the Oscar possibilities indicates that 1968 was not a bumper-crop year. There were some acceptable entertainment films, but few that were as innovative as last year's "Bonnie and Clyde" and "The Graduate."

Here are the films which the companies hope will win best-picture nominations: "The Lion in Winter," "Rachet, Rachel," "Isadora," "Rosemary's Baby," "The Subject Was Roses," "Star!," "Fences," "The Fixer," "Hell in the Pacific," "Planet of the Apes," "Candy," "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," "Finian's Rainbow."

A lengthy list, including some titles that won't be seriously considered. With some of the contenders still unseen, it appears that "The Lion in Winter" is the leader thus far.

Also in contention: Peter O'Toole, "The Lion in Winter"; Jack Albertson, "The Subject Was Roses"; Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon, "The Odd Couple"; Cliff Robertson, "Charley"; Lee Marvin and Toshiro Mifune, "Hell in the Pacific"; Rod Steiger, "The Sergeant"; Ron Moody, "Oliver!"; Alan Arkin, "The Heart is a Lonely Hunter"; Kirk Douglas, "The Brotherhood"; Julian Mayfield, "Uptight"; Patrick McGowan, "Ice Station Zebra"; Alan Bates, "The Fixer"; Charlton Heston, "Planet of the Apes."

The leaders: Robertson, Matthau, O'Toole. Best actress— The year saw a number of strong female performances, although the movies are predominantly a man's world. Katharine Hepburn is a good bet to win her second Oscar in a row for "The Lion in Winter." If she did, it would be the first time that a star has won three awards.

Providing strong contention are Joanne Woodward for "Rachel, Rachel"; Barbra Streisand, "Funny Girl"; Mia Farrow, "Rosemary's Baby"; "Secret Ceremony"; Patricia Neal, "The Subject Was Roses"; and "The Seagull"; Beryl Reid and Susanah York in "The Killing of Sister George"; plus Anne Heywood, "The Fixer"; Julie Andrews, "Star!"; and Joanne Shimkus, "Cita."

Best directors— It looks like a warm race, with such possibilities as Anthony Harvey, "The Lion in Winter"; Paul Newman, "Rachel, Rachel"; William Wyler, "Funny Girl"; Stanley Kubrick, "2001"; Carol Reed, "Oliver!"; John Frankenheimer, "The Fixer"; Franco Zeffirelli, "Romeo and Juliet"; Roman Polanski, "Rosemary's Baby"; Martin Ritt, "The Brotherhood"; John Cassavetes, "Faces"; Gene Saks, "The Odd Couple"; Jules Dassin, "Uptight"; Karel Reisz, "Isadora"; Sidney Lumet, "The Sea Gull"; Peter Yates, "Bullitt"; Ulu Grosbard, "The Subject Was Roses." At this early stage, the front-runner appears to be Anthony Harvey.

Dear Abby: Secretary, Wife Wants To Be Both

DEAR ABBY: I am a professional man who is presently married to the woman who was my secretary for several years. She is my second wife.

We have been married for 6 years and have two small children. (I also have older children by my first wife.)

My problem: My wife is "restless" and wants to go back to work—in my office and I don't want her there.

She has all kinds of arguments on her side. She knows my business, was an excellent secretary and we have help at home so she wouldn't be neglecting the children.

She says she misses the "excitement" of the business world.

If I raise any objections she gets suspicious. I have no ulterior motives. She doesn't need the money, could find other ways of keeping busy, and I simply do not want her in my office.

Now, Dear Abby, if you can tell me how I can keep her out, peacefully, you're a genius. Or am I wrong?

DEAR NO GENIUS: I'm no genius either, but I'll try. Tell your wife that you took her out of your office and made her the lady of your house because that's where you wanted her to be. Also its unfair for a woman who doesn't need the money to take the job from someone who does. Tell her with her abilities she can occupy herself constructively in volunteer work. And finally tell her that if she still misses

Sailor Fights Off Cancer, Now Heads Major Force

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Edwin W. Rosenberg refused to believe the doctors who told him 23 years ago he would die of cancer. Today, a rear admiral, he commands the 7th Fleet Amphibious Force in Vietnam.

A 1942 Annapolis graduate, Rosenberg was invalided out of the Navy in 1945 when doctors found cancer after his return from World War II duty as a navigator on an aircraft carrier.

Between 1946 and 1950 he survived four bouts with cancer even after doctors who found a growth in his kidney told him, "You've got two weeks to live."

"Let's get started with the X-ray treatment," he told doctors at Chelsea Navy hospital in Boston. The X-rays worked and the cancer was burned out.

His life saved, Rosenberg set about saving his career. Twice he convinced the Navy retirement board he was cured. However, each time the doctors found another cancer, in the groin for the second time and in the neck.

But Rosenberg, who from his boyhood in Sarpy County, Neb., had wanted to be a naval officer, did not give up. He continued with the X-ray treatments and kept fighting to get back into uniform.

By September 1948 he had talked the Navy into giving him temporary duty as an instructor at the Naval Academy. This was progress, but he was still on the retired list.

Rosenberg asked for active status again.

"Not a chance," he was told.

"It would take an act of Congress."

He went after that act of Congress. Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, introduced the measure and in September 1950 President Harry S. Truman signed it.

In 1952 Rosenberg took command of his first ship, the destroyer J. Douglas Blackwood.

On Sunday, Rosenberg relieved Rear Adm. Paul L. Lacy Jr. as commander of the 7th Fleet unit. Rosenberg came to Vietnam from Honolulu where he was the Pacific Fleet's deputy chief of staff for logistics, personnel and administration.

Lacy goes to Washington to head a new department of submarine design.

Christmas Cookie Bake Means Gala Munching

By ALICE DENHOFF

Since cookies, in general, require little in the way of leavening to make them good, it isn't too surprising to learn that cookies as baked goods were known and loved before the invention of baking powder made possible our modern sweet cakes. Centuries ago, as now, the addition of sweet spices — cinnamon, ginger, nutmeg, cloves, etc. — gave cookies tempting aroma.

Tested Recipes

The recipes offered today have been tested with just the amount of spice or spices to enhance the flavor of the other ingredients. Note that in each case, the ground spices have been added to the fat before it is beaten or melted.

To save time and fuel, when baking cookies, use 2 baking sheets, each about 2 inches smaller than the oven. One sheet of cookies can be baking while the other is being filled.

So, happy cookie baking and munching.

3/4 c. sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. baking soda
2-3 c. butter or margarine
1/2 c. mild light molasses
2-3 c. sugar
1 1/2 tsp. ground ginger
1 tsp. ground allspice
Sift together first 3 ingredients; set aside. Melt butter in large saucepan. Stir in next 4 ingredients. Add flour mixture; mix well. Chill until dough is stiff enough to handle — about 1 hour.

On a lightly floured board, roll dough 1/8" thick. Shape as desired with cookie cutters. Place on ungreased cookie sheets 1" apart. Bake 5 to 7 min. at 400 degrees F. Remove at once from cookie sheets to wire racks. Decorate as desired for pretty holiday cookies.

Recipe makes about 6 doz.

SPICED HONEY CHEWS

2 c. sifted cake flour
1/4 c. sugar
1 tsp. ground nutmeg
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 c. baking soda
1/2 c. butter or margarine, melted
1/2 c. honey
4 egg whites, unbeaten
2 tsp. milk
1 3/4 c. moist, shredded coconut
Sift together first 5 ingredients into a large bowl. Add next 4 ingredients. Mix well but do not overbeat. Stir in coconut. Pour into 2 well-greased waxed-paper lined 8x8x2" pans. Bake at 350 degrees 35 min., or until top is firm when pressed lightly. Turn out onto wire racks. Remove paper at once.

Cool. Cut each into 24 squares. Store in tightly closed container. Prepare 2 to 3 days before serving as the flavor improves with age.

SPICED GINGER BREAD GEMS

1 c. butter or margarine, softened
3/4 tsp. ground mace
1/4 tsp. ground ginger
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
1-3 cup sugar
2 1/4 c. sifted all-purpose flour
1 c. chopped pecans or walnuts
Confectioners' sugar
Red and green granulated decorating sugar
In large mixing bowl, cream butter; blend in spices and vanilla extract. Gradually add the 1-3 cup sugar. Stir in flour, a little at a time, along with nuts. Shape into 1" balls or small crescents.

Place on ungreased cookie sheets 1" apart. Bake 20 min., or until golden brown in 350 degree oven. Remove from cookie sheets to wire racks. While still warm, roll in confectioners' sugar then in decorating sugar. Store in tightly closed container. This makes 3 doz. cookies.

BARBARA JEAN GRIFFITH

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Griffith, 407 E. Union St., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Herbert F. Dyke, son of Mrs. Erma Dyke, 353 E. Main St., and the late Chester Dyke.

The bride-elect is a 1967 graduate of Circleville High School. She is presently employed by the State of Ohio, Bureau of Workmen's Compensation in Columbus.

Mr. Dyke is a 1965 graduate of Teays Valley High School. He recently returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam where he served with the 101st Airborne Division of the U. S. Army. He is presently employed in Columbus.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Faith Class Christmas Dinner Held

Faith Class of the First Baptist Church held its December meeting in the home of Mrs. Marjorie Konkle, with 20 members present.

The evening featured a carry-in dinner and gift exchange which revealed secret sisters for the past year.

Devotions entitled "Christ or Santa" were presented by Mrs. Berni Ash followed with a prayer by Mrs. Cherie McKinney.

During the business meeting Mrs. Ruth Ann Gelate was elected assistant secretary. The class is contributing to the Annual Lottie Moon, Foreign Mission Offering.

Secret sister names were drawn for the coming year. A farewell was given to Mrs. Bobbie Kimbrough and Mrs. Jo Ann Stump, who are being transferred.

A social hour was held following the business meeting.

Cranberries Go All Out In Dishes Or Decoration

By ALICE DENHOFF

Be a happy extrovert and give a ruby-red hued heartiness to your holiday entertaining this year. How? By doing it the easy way with cranberries. Decorate your home, your table and your food with these lovely holiday berries.

Candlestick Maker

If you happen to be short of candlesticks for that holiday table centerpiece — put your cranberries to work. Take whatever glasses you have on hand and fill them with fresh cranberries. Cut rounds of cardboard to fit the tops of the glasses and tape cardboard in place. Turn the glasses upside down, melt the bottom of a candle and press it into the bottom of each glass. Arrange autumn leaves, holly or other greenery around the base of each candlestick. One advantage to these homemade, but most attractive candlesticks is that you can gauge the height you want by the glasses you select and you can also change them during the holidays.

How about a bright red salad for company fare, one that looks as nice as it tastes? With its pretty poinsettia decoration, it could, in a pinch, serve as the centerpiece for the Christmas feast. Just spread the top of your favorite molded vegetable salad with softened cream cheese.

Cut the long petal shape of poinsettia leaves from thin slices of jellied cranberry sauce. Add the green stem and leaves cut from thin slices of cucumber rind. For added color, outline salad platter with fresh cranberries.

Here is a recipe for the salad.

CRANBERRY-DATE SALAD
1 lb. (4 c.) Ocean Spray fresh cranberries
1 1/4 c. water
1 c. sugar
1 6-oz. pkg. lemon-flavored gelatin
1 c. each, cold water, chopped pitted dates and chopped walnuts Combine first 2 ingredients in saucepan. Cook over medium heat until berries begin to pop. Add sugar and gelatin, stirring until both are dissolved. Add 1 c. cold water; chill until thickened. Fold in dates and walnuts. Pour into 1-qt. mold and chill until firm. Unmold. Nice with whipped cream cheese. It serves 6 to 8.

CRANBERRY APRICOT MOLD

2 tbsp. (2 envelopes) unflavored gelatin
1/2 c. cold water
1/2 c. fresh cranberries
1 can (12 oz.) apricot nectar
1 c. sugar
1/2 c. apricot syrup, drained from canned apricots
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 c. drained, canned apricot halves, sliced
Combine gelatin and water; let stand 5 min. Combine next 2 ingredients in sauce pan. Cook over medium heat until berries begin to pop. Add gelatin and sugar; stir until dissolved. Stir in apricot syrup and lemon juice. Chill until thickened. Fold in apricots; pour into 1-qt. mold. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with crisp salad greens, if desired.

Serves 4 to 6.

Yule Dinner Held By Guild 41

Princess Anne Steals The Show

LONDON (AP) — Princess Anne, wearing an upsway hairdo and brown velvet cloak, stole the show at a film premiere Monday night.

Her parents, Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, and her brother, Prince Charles, were along too, but it was the 18-year-old princess in her stunning cloak who made the front pages. Anne, recently emerged from a girls' school in the English countryside, has been stealing quite a bit of the glamour lately. The royal turnout was for the British musical film "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang."

Woman's Death Brings Inquest

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County Coroner Dr. Frank P. Cleveland is expected to rule today on the death of a suburban Kenwood housewife.

Deborah Fay Martin, 40, was found shortly after noon Monday at the foot of a basement stairway by her husband, John W. Martin Jr., district manager of a national investment firm.

Herbert Vogel, Hamilton County chief detective, said that multiple wounds on Mrs. Martin's head caused him to request an autopsy.

Rhodes OKs History, Tourism To Boost History, Tourism

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes today approved a $5 million plan for improving and expanding Ohio's historical centers and facilities.

"This program will teach our youth in appreciation for the great moments and people in the Ohio heritage," Rhodes said. "It is an investment in patriotism."

Furthermore it will contribute to tourism which is the third largest industry in Ohio. Every million visitors to Ohio supports an additional 1,700 jobs for Ohioans.

Rhodes said the improvements would come over a five-year period.

Major items he listed are: —Completion of the state historical center at Columbus at a cost of $1,600,000.

—Creation of seven new museums near major highways at a cost of $2 million.

Saving historic buildings and homes in various parts of the state at a cost of about $600,000.

—Complete restoration and development of 11 major existing state memorials at a cost of about $1,100,000.

The proposed museums would be an Indian museum and restoration of Ft. Pickawillany in the Dayton - Piqua area; Ohio River museum at Marietta; a Zane Grey and national road museum in Muskingum County; a pottery museum in Perry County; a ceramics museum in the East Liverpool area; a mound builders museum in Hocking County and a Black Swamp museum in Defiance County.

65 Years Of Flight Are Noted

KITTY HAWK, N.C. (AP) — Sixty-five years ago today Orville and Wilbur Wright made man's first successful heavier-than-air flight.

The Dayton, Ohio, bicycle makers made the flight, and ushered in the air age, over the sandy coastal hills of Kitty Hawk.

And at Kitty Hawk the anniversary is marked with speeches, flyovers by modern planes, and the unveiling of portraits of distinguished fliers.

Representatives of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce placed a wreath at the Wright brothers national memorial near the scene of the flight.

President Johnson, proclaiming today Wright Brothers Day, recalled in Washington that the flight was shorter than the floor of the giant C5 cargo plane that was test flown this year. "But those brief flights, in the sand hill area outside Kitty Hawk, N.C., on Dec. 17, 1903, launched the air age. They changed mankind's way of life," the President said.

Orville made the first successful flight, having won the privilege by a toss of a coin. He flew 120 feet and remained in the air 12 seconds. The brothers made three more flights that day, the longest 852 feet in 59 seconds by Wilbur.

Christmas Cookie Bake Means Gala Munching

By ALICE DENHOFF

Since cookies, in general, require little in the way of leavening to make them good, it isn't too surprising to learn that cookies as baked goods were known and loved before the invention of baking powder made possible our modern sweet cakes. Centuries ago, as now, the addition of sweet spices — cinnamon, ginger, nutmeg, cloves, etc. — gave cookies tempting aroma.

Tested Recipes

The recipes offered today have been tested with just the amount of spice or spices to enhance the flavor of the other ingredients. Note that in each case, the ground spices have been added to the fat before it is beaten or melted.

To save time and fuel, when baking cookies, use 2 baking sheets, each about 2 inches smaller than the oven. One sheet of cookies can be baking while the other is being filled.

3 1/2 c. sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. baking soda
2-3 c. butter or margarine
1/2 c. mild light molasses
2-3 c. sugar
1 1/2 tsp. ground ginger
1 tsp. ground allspice

Sift together first 3 ingredients; set aside. Melt butter in large saucepan. Stir in next 4 ingredients. Add flour mixture; mix well. Chill until dough is stiff enough to handle — about 1 hour.

On a lightly floured board, roll dough 1/8" thick. Shape as desired with cookie cutters. Place on ungreased cookie sheets 1" apart. Bake 5 to 7 min. at 400 degrees F. Remove at once from cookie sheets to wire racks. Decorate as desired for pretty holiday cookies.

Recipe makes about 6 doz.

SPICED HONEY CHEWS

2 c. sifted cake flour
1 1/4 c. sugar
1 tsp. ground nutmeg
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. baking soda
1/2 c. butter or margarine, melted
1/2 c. honey
4 egg whites, unbeaten
2 tsp. milk
1 3/4 c. moist, shredded coconut

Sift together first 5 ingredients into a large bowl. Add next 4 ingredients. Mix well but do not overbeat. Stir in coconut. Pour into 2 well-greased waxed-paper lined 8x8x2" pans. Bake at 350 degrees 35 min., or until top is firm when pressed lightly. Turn out onto wire racks. Remove paper at once.

Cool. Cut each into 24 squares. Store in tightly closed container. Prepare 2 to 3 days before serving as the flavor improves with age.

SPICED GINGER BREAD GEMS

1 c. butter or margarine, softened
3/4 tsp. ground mace
1/2 tsp. ground ginger
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
1-3 cup sugar
2 1/4 c. sifted all-purpose flour
1 c. chopped pecans or walnuts
Confectioners' sugar
Red and green granulated decorating sugar

In large mixing bowl, cream butter; blend in spices and vanilla extract. Gradually add the 1-3 cup sugar. Stir in flour, a little at a time, along with nuts. Shape into 1" balls or small crescents.

Place on ungreased cookie sheets 1" apart. Bake 20 min., or until golden brown in 350 degree oven. Remove from cookie sheets to wire racks. While still warm, roll in confectioners' sugar then in decorating sugar. Store in tightly closed container.

This makes 3 doz. cookies.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Griffith, 407 E. Union St., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Herbert F. Dyke, son of Mrs. Erma Dyke, 353 E. Main St., and the late Chester Dyke.

The bride-elect is a 1967 graduate of Circleville High School. She is presently employed by the State of Ohio, Bureau of Workmen's Compensation in Columbus.

Mr. Dyke is a 1965 graduate of Teays Valley High School. He recently returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam where he served with the 101st Airborne Division of the U. S. Army. He is presently employed in Columbus.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Faith Class Christmas Dinner Held

Faith Class of the First Baptist Church held its December meeting in the home of Mrs. Marjorie Konke, with 20 members present.

The evening featured a carry-in dinner and gift exchange which revealed secret sisters for the past year.

Devotions entitled "Christ or Santa" were presented by Mrs. Berl Ash followed with a prayer by Mrs. Cherie McKinney.

During the business meeting Mrs. Ruth Ann Galate was elected assistant secretary. The class is contributing to the Annual Lotte Moon, Foreign Mission Offering.

Secret sister names were drawn for the coming year. A farewell was given to Mrs. Bobbie Kimbrough and Mrs. Jo Ann Stump, who are being transferred.

A social hour was held following the business meeting.

Santa and the Hippies

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Ding Dong paints a psychedelic portrait of the Black Witch with his hippie finger paints. She is so pleased she gives him the black thread.

CHAPTER 13 THE RED WITCH

DING DONG flew back to the Butterfly Kingdom and gave the black thread to the Butterfly Queen.

"You have done well," she said. "But, alas, the red thread spun by the Red Witch will be even harder to get."

She told him the Red Witch lived in the red jaws of a monster where she pined away her days because the monster was in love with her and would not let her go.

The monster loved the Red Witch because she could sing and play the harp and cello and piccolo and many other instruments. Her music intoxicated the monster. He kept the Witch a prisoner in his jaws where she had to play and sing night and day.

He gave her furs and jewelry and furnished his jaws with fine china and silver and the best of musical instruments. He even supplied a spinning wheel made of gold to keep her hands busy while she sang. But he never let her out of his jaws at all.

When Ding Dong heard the story he picked up his bag of hippie gifts and flew away to the seaside where the monster lived.

The monster's eyes were closed. He was listening dreamily to the Red Witch inside his jaws playing a Sonata in B Minor on the harpsichord.

Every now and then the monster ducked his head in the nearby sea, opened his jaws and took in a supply of fish for the Witch and himself. The Red Witch could not escape because she could not swim.

But Ding Dong watched his chance and the next time the monster opened his jaws under water Ding Dong was there waiting and he swam in with the fish.

The Red Witch was so startled to see him her fingers slipped on the harpsichord keys hitting a sharp instead of A flat and causing the monster to shake his head in alarm.

The Red Witch told Ding Dong he was the first person she had seen in a hundred years but when Ding Dong said he had come for a piece of the red thread she spun she shook her head.

"It is all I have," she said, pointing to the thread wrapped around her waist. "Every night when he goes to sleep I spin a bit. When I have enough I will use it to pull out his teeth and escape. It is my only hope."

The monster gargled suddenly. "That is my signal to sing, 'Lo, Here the Gentle Lark,'" the Red Witch sighed. "He must hear it to soothe his digestion after every meal."

"Wait," said Ding Dong. He took the hippie record out of his bag and put it on the phonograph.

An instant later the Hippies of Hippieville let rip with "Ring Pong Kerchoo There's an Oyster in My Bed Room Slipper but no Hiddlely Moo in My Stew." They beat out the tune with fry pans and fire alarm bells.

The red jaws of the monster rocked and shivered and splintered and quivered and suddenly exploded as the monster opened his mouth to scream in pain.

Ding Dong and the Red Witch rushed out of the red jaws and fled across the fields until they were sure they were safe.

The Red Witch was overjoyed. She unwound the red thread from her waist and gave it to Ding Dong saying, "It is yours. I'll never need it now thanks to you!"

New Heart Given Man In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A 22-year-old New York man, whose twin brother died of congenital heart disease in February, received a new heart Monday night during a 2½-hour transplant operation at the Cleveland Clinic Hospital.

The recipient, Wylie H. Julliard of Babylon, N. Y., was reported in fair condition early today after being isolated to await post-operative developments.

A hospital spokesman said his new heart was "beating nicely."

Julliard was studying to become an aeronautical engineer at the Embry Riddle Aeronautical Institute at Daytona Beach, Fla., before he had to drop out because of his ailment.

Relatives say his twin brother, Wayne, died of the same ailment, and that Wylie was stricken with the disease two months later.

He was referred to the Cleveland Clinic as a last hope by a New York physician.

Muhammad Ali Reports To Jail

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Dade County Jail accepted its quickest quipster Monday when Muhammad Ali—Formerly Cassius Clay—surrendered to serve a 17-month-old, 19-day sentence on a traffic charge.

"I'm here to pay my debt," the ex-world heavyweight boxing champion said at a press conference before turning himself in at the jail. His sentence was for driving on an expired license.

Ali was made a jail trusty.

Ex-Trotwood Bank Official Under Indictment

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A federal grand jury returned indictments Monday against a former official of the Farmers and Citizens Bank of Trotwood and a depositor.

Robert G. Gump, 53, former vice president of the bank who resigned earlier this year, was named in 13 counts alleging false entries in bank records between Jan. 13, 1964 and Feb. 23, 1968.

Harlen M. Buckles, 42, president of Guaranteed Painting and Decorating, Inc., Dayton, was charged in one count with misapplication of bank funds.

The indictment alleges that over the specified period Gump increased the decorating firm's debt to the bank by nearly $800,000.

The works of the Westminster Abbey clock date from 1860, though the dial is 17th century. It was designed by a man with a name Dickens would have loved, Thomas Buggins of Clerkenwell.

NEW YORK AP) — The recipe for NBC's latest made-for-TV feature, "The Sunshine Patriot," was certainly tried and true.

There was the intrepid secret agent behind the Iron Curtain trying to get the coin with the microfilm in its hollow core. There was the American revel-er trying to combine a business deal with a discreet tryst with a girl but caught in a switch of identities. There was a liberal salting of violence. And there were some mighty fine actors.

All this, but the Monday night film was simply a two-hour drag. It was almost a relief when it wound its leisurely way to a curious finish—our agent writing in a death scene without accomplishing his mission.

The program had a weakness often found in those world premiere programs. It seemed too fragile to convert into a real theatrical film, too complicated to turn into short, snappy action.

It took about 40 minutes just to get Cliff Robertson established in his role as Agent Ross—dark-haired, bearded and laconic—and to have him switch passports with businessman Selby—also Robertson, but clean-shaven and silver-thatched in that part. Thereafter the show took off with a slow pace as Ross tried to get the microfilm, with frequent portions showing how the innocent businessman was being drugged, beaten and questioned by the stern, suspicious inquisitors, convinced they had a hot spy in custody.

Robertson's misfortune was in having to play a dual role of two pretty unsympathetic characters. Dina Merrill, unhappily rigged up in a dark wig through most of the show, played the businessman's European playmate in lackluster fashion.

The show had vast evidence of padding to get through two hours. At one point there was considerable ado about the ir-

Bellefontaine Police Dispute Under Study

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP)—City council met informally Monday night to discuss a strike by the city's 12 policemen, but took no action.

Council President Lewis Ratleff said the city cannot take any further action until the Fraternal Order of Police submits a formal rejection of last wage offer.

The council's finance committee offered a $50-a-month pay hike, including insurance costs. The FOP rejected the offer at a meeting Friday.

The sick call began Saturday.

Future Nurses Plan Tours, Hear Speaker, Watch Movie

By KAREN EPPS

Future Nurses Club of Teavs Valley held their second meeting Oct. 31, and their third meeting of the year Nov. 21.

The second meeting was presided over by Becky Dum, vice president.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved. Two members were then introduced.

During the business meeting, the members discussed attending the Berger Hospital Tea and touring other schools of nursing.

A program committee was appointed for the next meeting with Charlene Cordle as chairman.

After the meeting a movie entitled "Rescue Breathing" was shown.

The third meeting was called to order by Jonette Christy, president.

Twenty-five members were present. It was decided that some of the members would tour Riverside Hospital Saturday, November 23. There was also a motion that the dues should be paid by next month.

After the business meeting, Mr. Howard Weaver, guidance counselor, spoke to the group on the different schools of nursing in the area. Shelby Kitchen then gave a report of touring Grant Hospital's School of Nursing.

Judy Gulick will be in charge of the program at the next meeting.

FERRER AND COOLER—Producer-director Mel Ferrer and actress Audrey Hepburn are shown in a happier day, before divorce in Switzerland ended their 14-year marriage. They have a son Sean, 8, who lives with his mother in Switzerland.

Viet Vets Get Vacation In Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — For S. Sgt. William B. Carlson, it's a honeymoon.

For Pvt. Michael Brooks, it will be a chance to swim in clean water.

They are among 54 servicemen who have completed tours in Vietnam and were flown to Phoenix from Saigon for a week's free vacation in Camelback Inn as rewards for outstanding service.

Carlson of San Diego, Calif., was joined by Khaly, the Vietnamese he married little more than three months ago.

Brooks of Houston, Tex., said that after his Vietnam duty, "I've had enough of dirty water for awhile."

Capt. K. T. Henry of Columbus, Ga., was under a blistering rocket attack in the "rocket belt" around Saigon less than a week ago. He's a 19-year Army veteran, a member of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade. As the ranking officer, he was in charge of the men on their 36-hour flight from Saigon. They stopped in San Francisco only long enough to swap their fatigues for dress uniforms.

"I'd like to express our appreciation for this very warm welcome," he said after an airport greeting from a band and pom-pom girls from Arizona State University. "It bolsters our confidence in the American mission. It's quite refreshing in view of the dissident voices we hear about in Vietnam. I've never seen anything like it."

"Yesterday in Saigon, today in Arizona," said Sgt. Danny Smith of St. David, Ariz. "I can't believe it."

Dates were provided for the single men and one of them asked the hotel's social director, "Can we leave the hotel?"

"No passes are necessary—you're not in jail," she said. "Consider yourself off base."

High Court Moves Cautiously In Draft Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, moving slowly and carefully, has started to resolve draft law questions raised by the Vietnam war. But important decisions still lie ahead. In rulings Monday the court said:

—Divinity students and others expressly exempted from the draft by Congress may not be shorn of their exemptions as punishment for antiwar views.

—A draft board's refusal to shield a man from military service as a conscientious objector cannot be tested in court before induction.

The decisions did not settle the basic issue of whether the Selective Service can use the draft laws to punish antiwar advocates.

This problem awaits the court in a case involving a draftee who doesn't have a statutory exemption and was classified 1A for turning in his draft card.

Draft boards, on a clear signal from Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, have been using delinquency regulations to expose opponents of the war to immediate induction.

The divinity student ruling reduces the boards' power and may be interpreted as a blow at Hershey policy.

Justice William O. Douglas, in the 6 to 3 decision said the Cheyenne, Wyo., draft board which classified divinity student James J. Oestereich 1A for turning in his draft card to the Justice Department acted in a "blatantly lawless manner."

Congress explicitly exempted from the draft divinity students and clerics, veterans, National Guardsmen and reservists, sole surviving sons and youths under 19.

These people, under the Oesterreich decision, cannot be forced into service because of their political, racial or religious views.

Most Vietnam war critics do not fit into this category. And the second ruling may foreshadow gloomy days for them.

However, that ruling dealt with a bid for conscientious objector status—and did not involve allegations that the draftee, Charles Gabriel of Alameda County, Calif., was being punished for his views on the war.

The next draft issue to be taken up by the Court involves Lawrence R. Faulkner, a 25-year-old Cornell graduate, who was reclassified 1A after he handed in his registration certificate to a Buffalo board to protest the United States' war policy.

Faulkner had enjoyed an occupational deferment as a teacher until he showed up at the board and denounced the war as immoral and illegal.

By then a graduate history student at the University of Buffalo, he was held delinquent for not having a registration certificate.

Faulkner sued and won a ruling in September by Federal Judge Anthony J. Travia of Brooklyn that cut a hole in the barrier against pre-induction suits.

When a draftee claims he was reclassified for exercising his rights to free speech, Travia said, he is entitled to a court ruling without taking a chance on going to jail to get one.

The Justice Department, which had conceded Oestereich had such a right, makes no such concession in appealing to the Supreme Court.

Unless a draftee can get a ruling before induction he faces a dilemma. He can abandon his claim and accept induction. Or, he can refuse induction, be prosecuted by the government, and, with a possible jail term hanging over his head attack his reclassification while defending himself.

Metered Fare Boxes Set On Cincy Buses

CINCINNATI (AP) — Locked and metered fare boxes will replace patrolling Cincinnati policemen on city transit buses here next month.

In an effort to stop bus hold-ups, the Cincinnati Transit Co. Monday announced it will buy about 370 special fare boxes for $284,000. They are expected to be in service sometime in January.

High St. School Slates Annual Yule Program

The musical playlet "The Spirit of Christmas" will be given by the entire student body of High Street School 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

This playlet consists of three short scenes centering around an old man and two young girls who search for the true meaning of Christmas.

Each grade in the school forms groups of children, choirs, and carolers who enter bringing gifts for the poor and in the final scene a vision of the Holy Family is revealed to all.

Ohio Abortion Law Reform Being Pushed

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Association for Reform of Ohio Abortion Law elected a new executive committee here Monday night to lead the fight for more liberal abortion statutes in the state.

Dr. Richard A. Schwartz of Cleveland was re-elected chairman.

The association would have the recommendations of the American Law Institute adopted. The institute's model penal code would permit abortions if:

—Continuation of a pregnancy would gravely impair the physical or mental health of the mother.

—The pregnancy resulted from rape or incest.

Five states—California, Colorado, Georgia, Maryland and North Carolina—recently have amended their laws on abortion in this direction.

Low Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

A few very light snow flurries were reported in extreme northeast Ohio during the night but there was no new snow accumulation. Clear skies prevailed elsewhere except for some variable cloudiness in the central part of the state.

At 6 a. m. Toledo reported the lowest temperature, 13 degrees, and Cleveland was the warmest with 24 degrees.

Cloudiness in Northeast Ohio this morning was expected to break up, followed by sunny skies and temperatures in the 30s. Low temperatures tonight will be mostly in the 20s.

Cloudiness and warmer air will spread into Ohio by Wednesday with a chance of rain showers spreading into the state from the west.

FORECASTS

NORTHWEST, SOUTHWEST OHIO—Fair and not so cold tonight, low mid to upper 20s. Wednesday considerable cloudiness and warmer with chance of showers.

CENTRAL, SOUTHEAST OHIO—Fair and not so cool tonight, low in 20s. Wednesday considerable cloudiness and warmer.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK Looking Back to 1868

74-D It is stated the first department store in U.S.A. was "the Zion's Co-Operative Mercantile Institution, created by Brigham Young in 1868 at Salt Lake City, Utah. In the beginning each department had its own building. One handled dry-goods and carpets, another men's clothing. Groceries were sold in a different place, while another was a drug store."

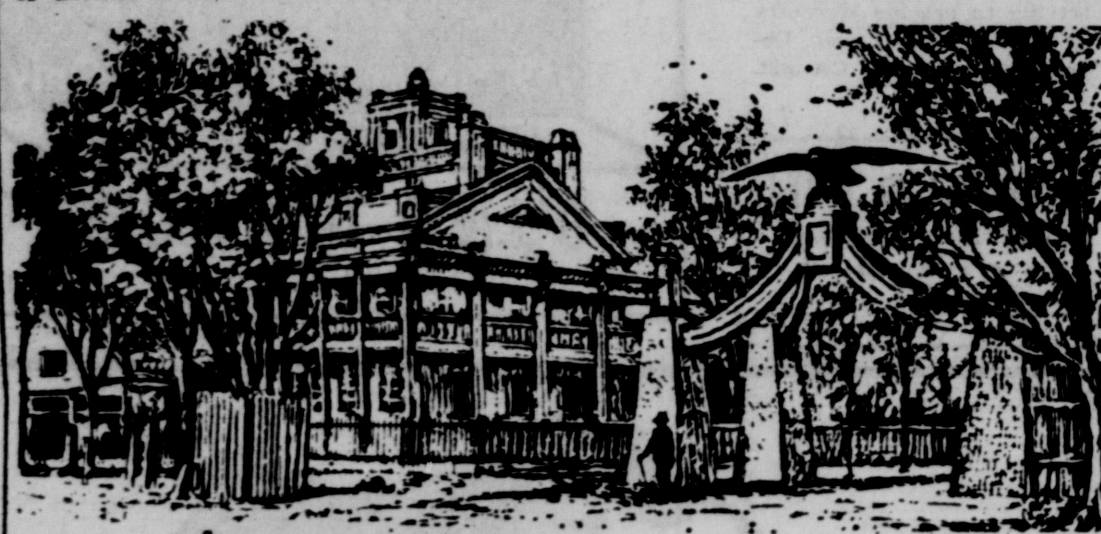

This indicates the Institution anticipated arcades or shopping centers of today. The account continues, "The following year, they were all housed under the same roof."

Both the shopping-center and the department store had forerunners in the bazaars of ancient times, where individual tradespeople, craftsmen, shop-keepers, grouped on market-days at some central location, such as a plaza, or just outside city walls.

Salt Lake City had been founded in 1847 by some 1,653 persons who moved with wagons or handcarts and cattle, from Council Bluffs, Iowa. Before 1870, there were 85,000—including many immigrants from Europe. Zion's Co-Operative Mercantile Institution bought their products while providing their supplies—the first large farmers' and stockmen's co-operative in America. Incidentally, it simplified Mr. Young's providing for his family, which multiplied to nearly a hundred.

CLARK KINNAIRD

High Court Moves Cautiously In Draft Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, moving slowly and carefully, has started to resolve draft law questions raised by the Vietnam war. But important decisions still lie ahead.

In rulings Monday the court said:

- Divinity students and others expressly exempted from the draft by Congress may not be shorn of their exemptions as punishment for antiwar views.
- A draft board's refusal to shield a man from military service as a conscientious objector cannot be tested in court before induction.

The decisions did not settle the basic issue of whether the Selective Service can use the draft laws to punish antiwar advocates.

This problem awaits the court in a case involving a draftee who doesn't have a statutory exemption and was classified 1A for turning in his draft card.

Draft boards, on a clear signal from Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, have been using delinquency regulations to expose opponents of the war to immediate induction.

The divinity student ruling reduces the boards' power and may be interpreted as a blow at Hershey's policy.

Justice William O. Douglas, in the 6 to 3 decision said the Cheyenne, Wyo., draft board which classified divinity student James J. Oestereich 1A for turning in his draft card to the Justice Department acted in a "blatantly lawless manner."

Congress explicitly exempted from the draft divinity students and clerics, veterans, National Guardsmen and reservists, sole surviving sons and youths under 19.

These people, under the Oestereich decision, cannot be forced into service because of their political, racial or religious views.

Most Vietnam war critics do not fit into this category. And the second ruling may foreshadow gloomy days for them.

However, that ruling dealt with a bid for conscientious objector status—and did not involve allegations that the draftee, Charles Gabriel Alameda County, Calif., was being punished for his views on the war.

The next draft issue to be taken up by the Court involves Lawrence R. Faulkner, a 25-year-old Cornell graduate, who was reclassified 1A after he handed in his registration certificate to a Buffalo board to protest the United States' war policy.

Faulkner had enjoyed an occupational deferment as a teacher until he showed up at the board and denounced the war as immoral and illegal.

By then a graduate history student at the University of Buffalo, he was held delinquent for not having a registration certificate.

Faulkner sued and won a ruling in September by Federal Judge Anthony J. Travia of Brooklyn that cut a hole in the barrier against pre-induction suits.

When a draftee claims he was reclassified for exercising his rights to free speech, Travia said, he is entitled to a court ruling without taking a chance on going to jail to get one.

The Justice Department, which had conceded Oestereich had such a right, makes no such concession in appealing to the Supreme Court.

Unless a draftee can get a ruling before induction he faces a dilemma. He can abandon his claim and accept induction. Or, he can refuse induction, be prosecuted by the government, and with a possible jail term hanging over his head attack his reclassification while defending himself.

High St. School Slates Annual Yule Program

The musical playlet "The Spirit of Christmas" will be given by the entire student body of High Street School 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

This playlet consists of three short scenes centering around an old man and two young girls who search for the true meaning of Christmas.

Each grade in the school forms groups of children, choirs, and carolers who enter bringing gifts for the poor and in the final scene a vision of the Holy Family is revealed to all.

Low Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

A few very light snow flurries were reported in extreme northeast Ohio during the night but there was no new snow accumulation. Clear skies prevailed elsewhere except for some variable cloudiness in the central part of the state.

Cloudiness in Northeast Ohio this morning was expected to break up, followed by sunny skies and temperatures in the 30s. Low temperatures tonight will be mostly in the 20s.

Cloudiness and warmer air will spread into Ohio by Wednesday with a chance of rain showers spreading into the state from the west.

FORECASTS
NORTHWEST, SOUTHWEST OHIO—Fair and not so cold tonight, low mid to upper 20s. Wednesday considerable cloudiness and warmer with chance of showers.
CENTRAL SOUTHEAST OHIO—Fair and not so cool tonight, low in 20s. Wednesday considerable cloudiness and warmer.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK Looking Back to 1868

74-D It is stated the first department store in U.S.A. was "The Zion's Co-Operative Mercantile Institution, created by Brigham Young in 1868 at Salt Lake City, Utah. In the beginning each department had its own building. One handled dry-goods and carpets, another men's clothing. Groceries were sold in a different place, while another was a drug store."

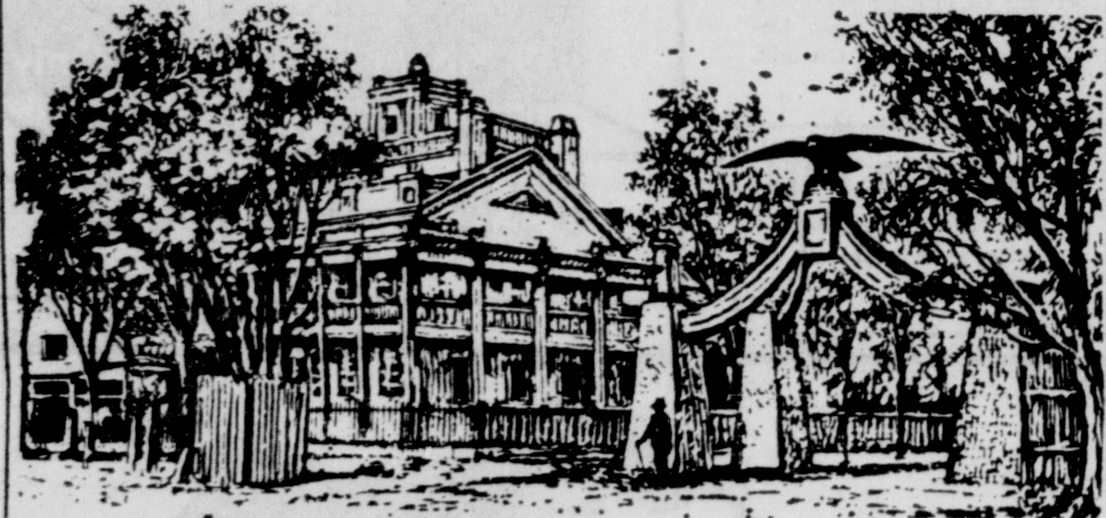

This indicates the Institution anticipated arcades or shopping centers of today. The account continues, "The following year, they were all housed under the same roof."

Both the shopping-center and the department store had forerunners in the bazaars of ancient times, where individual trades-

people, craftsmen, shop-keepers, grouped on market-days at some central location, such as a plaza, or just outside city walls.

Salt Lake City had been founded in 1847 by some 1,653 persons who moved with wagons or handcarts and cattle, from Council Bluffs, Iowa. Before 1870, there were 85,000—including many immigrants from Europe. Zion's Co-Operative Mercantile Institution bought their products while providing their supplies—the first large farmers' and stockmen's co-operative in America. Incidentally, it simplified Mr. Young's providing for his family, which multiplied to nearly a hundred.

Top Ten Basketball Teams Have Rugged Night Monday

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was a rugged night for the nation's Top Ten college basketball teams Monday.

Ninth-ranked St. Bonaventure suffered its first loss of the season in a 71-68 decision to No. 13 Detroit.

The Bonnies' Bob Lanier outscored Olympic star Spencer Haywood 19-15, but Haywood, a 6-foot-8 sophomore, did yeoman work off the boards and headed a tight defense that forced the 6-11 Lanier outside.

Elsewhere, it was a rugged night for Top Ten teams in The Associated Press' weekly college basketball poll.

Second-ranked North Carolina overcame an early scare and crushed Clemson 90-69. But No. 5 New Mexico lost to Colorado

79-72 and sixth-ranked Cincinnati took an 83-68 pasting from Southern California. Seventh-ranked Notre Dame almost blew a 10-point lead before turning back Minnesota 69-65. The Second Ten teams didn't have it much easier. No. 11 Kansas downed Murray State 72-59 but 14th-ranked New Mexico State squeaked by Hardin-Simmons 74-68; Ohio State, No. 17, edged Washington State 75-74; Western Kentucky, ranked 18th, got by Austin Peay 75-73; No. 19 Louisville nipped Florida 79-78 and 20th-ranked Houston went into Kansas State 87-84.

Detroit, which has zoomed into national prominence since Haywood's Olympic heroics, won its first major test after six breathers even though Haywood was held to his lowest point total. He had been averaging 35 points a game.

North Carolina, unbeaten in five starts, roared back from a 28-22 deficit to whip Clemson, despite the outside shooting of the losers' Butch Zatezalo, who scored 32 points. Dick Grubar had 20 for the Tar Heels, who have a key contest tonight against Virginia.

Ron Smith, a 7-2 sophomore, paced Colorado past New Mexico. He scored 18 points, pulled down 13 rebounds and sent blocked shots back at the stunned Lobos faster than they went up. Cliff Meely had 26 points to lead the Colorado attack.

Southern Cal won its fourth straight in knocking Cincinnati, 4-1, from the unbeaten ranks. The Trojans built a 45-24 lead in the first half as the Bearcats hit only 20 per cent from the field before the intermission.

Notre Dame led Minnesota 65-55 with four minutes left but the Gophers cut it to 67-63 before sophomore Austin Carr made two free throws with 20 seconds left. Bob Whitmore scored 24 points for the Irish and Carr added 18, while Larry Mikan, son of the immortal George, sparked Minnesota with 17.

Marichal, finishing with 26 - 9 and a .743 percentage, won the most games. The 30 games he completed also topped the league and his 326 innings pitched were high. However, he gave up the most hits—295.

Ferguson Jenkins of the Chicago Cubs made the most starts, 40, and he and teammate Bill Hands yielded 26 home runs, tops in the dubious gopher ball category.

Claude Osteen of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Ray Sadecki of the Giants lost the most games—18 each—as they each posted 12-18 marks.

Ted Abernathy of the Cincinnati Reds made the most appearances, 78. All of his work was in relief and he had a 10-7 won-lost record and 2.47 earned run average.

There were three no-hit games, the first by George Culver of Cincinnati against Philadelphia July 29. The other two were on successive days in San Francisco—one by Gaylord Perry of the Giants against St. Louis Sept. 17 and the other by Ray Washburn of the Cards against the Giants the next day.

The Cardinals easily won team pitching honors with 63 complete games, 30 shutouts and a combined earned run average of 2.49.

Austin Is Fired From Steelers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bill Austin, who brought tight discipline but little else to the free-wheeling Pittsburgh Steelers, has been fired as head coach. Now the National Football League club is on a familiar road-in search of a new coach.

Austin, who tutored under Vince Lombardi and the Green Bay Packers, became coach when Buddy Parker quit the Steelers and retired.

ova No. 8. St. Bonaventure moved up to ninth place and Santa Clara soared from 16th into the top 10 on the basis of victories last week over highly-regarded Houston and San Francisco. The Broncos are 5-0.

The loss to Santa Clara dropped Houston from 12th to 20th in the rankings, but the Cougars were more fortunate than Duke and Iowa. Duke, ninth a week ago, lost three straight and dropped clear out of sight. Iowa, ranked 19th last week, slipped out of the top 20 when it lost to Wichita State.

Replacing Duke and Iowa in the rankings were New Mexico State and Louisville, both 5-0. State took 14th place and Louisville 19th.

Kansas headed the second 10 with 130 points for 11th place. Purdue was No. 12 and Detroit 13th in front of New Mexico State. In 15th position was Cali-

AFL All-Star Eastern Team Features Jets

NEW YORK (AP) — The Eastern champion New York Jets placed eight men, including quarterback Joe Namath and receivers George Sauer and Don Maynard, on the Eastern team today for the American Football League All-Star game Jan. 19.

The players were selected in a poll of coaches. The remaining 11 will be picked by the team's coach, who will be named later this week. The game will be played in Jacksonville, Fla.

Joining Namath, Maynard and Sauer from the Jets are offensive tackle Winston Hill, offensive guard Dave Herman, kicker Jim Turner, and defensive ends Gerry Philbin and Verlon Biggs.

Houston placed seven players on the team, but the other three clubs had a total of only eight. The rest of the offensive team is tackle Glen Ray Hines, Houston; guard Billy Shaw, Buffalo; center Jon Morris, Boston; tight end Alvin Reed, Houston, and running backs Hoyle Granger, Houston, and Jim Kiick, Miami. Kiick is the only rookie on the team.

The defense also has tackles Jim Dunaway, Buffalo, and Houston Antwine, Boston; linebackers George Webster and Garland Boyette, Houston, and Mike Stratton, Buffalo; cornerbacks Miller Farr, Houston, and George Byrd, Buffalo, and safeties Ken Houston, Houston, and George Saines, Buffalo.

Elvin Hayes Tops NBA In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, San Diego's sensational rookie, has widened his National Basketball Association scoring lead and moved into the Top Three in rebounding.

Hayes dropped in 127 points in four games last week for a 31-game total of 938 and a 125-point bulge over runner-up Bob Rule of Seattle, according to weekly NBA figures released today.

Buckeye QB Hurts Shoulder In Practice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rex Kern, the often-injured quarterback of Ohio State's Rose Bowl-bound football Buckeyes, is sidelined again.

The sophomore star dislocated his left shoulder in a blocking drill Monday, and Coach Woody Hayes said Kern, a right-handed thrower, will keep the arm in a sling for at least a week.

Hayes moved sophomore Ron Maciejowski into the No. 1 quarterback slot immediately and said that if Kern doesn't recover before the Jan. 1 game against Southern California "Maciejowski will do a fine job for us at quarterback. . . . He's a good one."

The No. 1 ranked Buckeyes also have senior Bill Long, who started as a sophomore and junior, as insurance. Hayes said that if Kern returns to practice he will be held out of all contact work.

Maciejowski and Long filled in capably, sensationally in some cases, in the games and parts of games that Kern missed due to injuries this season. But Kern was the sparkplug of the offense, rushing for 499 yards and completing 66 of 116 passes for 871 yards.

Kern was operated on for a slipped disc last summer but recovered in time to win the starting quarterback job. He missed one of the Buckeyes' nine regular season games with an ankle injury and sat out parts of several other games with a variety of injuries.

Maciejowski started for the injured Kern against Wisconsin and totaled 277 yards running and passing. He also played the entire second half against Michigan State and directed the winning touchdown drive in the Illinois game. For the season, he had 387 yards passing and 192 running.

Long scored the second touchdown in the Bucks' key 13 - 0 victory over Purdue. The Buckeyes leave for Los Angeles Friday to continue their preparation for the Rose Bowl.

Ray Nitschke AP Defensive Player

NEW YORK (AP) — The biggest defensive play of the last day of the National Football League season was made by Ray Nitschke of the Green Bay Packers, who intercepted a Jack Concannon pass in the final minutes to snuff out the Chicago Bears.

Bearcats Lose, OSU Barely Wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The University of Cincinnati Bearcats found out Monday night that the city of Los Angeles has a surplus of good basketball players over seven feet tall.

Everyone knows about Lew Alcindor of UCLA, the No. 1 ranked college cage team, and of Wilt Chamberlain of the pro Lakers. The Bearcats met 7-foot-1 Ron Taylor of Southern California, who scored 27 points and grabbed 19 rebounds as the Trojans tarnished UC's No. 6 ranking with an 83-68 defeat.

The Bearcats shot a horrid 20 per cent from the field in the first half and lost center Jim Ard on fouls early in the second half as they went down to their first defeat of the season. Rick Roberson had 21 of his 25 points in the last half, but it was too late.

Ohio State invaded the West Coast with more success Monday night. With Sophomore Jim Clemons scoring the last seven points for the Buckeyes, they pulled out a 75-74 victory over

Washington State.

Dave Sorenson missed a shot and Clemons tapped the ball in with four seconds left to settle the game. Ed Smith set up the winning basket by stealing a Cougar pass. Sorenson led all scorers, with 24 points, and teammate Jody Finney added 18. Clemons scored 14.

In other big games involving Ohio teams, Bowling Green bowed 92-67 to Southeast Conference power Vanderbilt, Akron lost 74-54 to the No. 1 ranked small college team, Kentucky Wesleyan, and Xavier nipped Old Dominion, 72-70.

Vandy's Bob Bundy and Tom Hagen combined for 54 points against BG, which was led by Jim Connally's 19. George Tinsley scored 25 points to lead Kentucky Wesleyan over Akron, while 6-foot-11 Luther Rackley threw in a jump shot with one second to play to settle Xavier's victory and give him 20 points for the game.

Elsewhere, Ohio Wesleyan traveled to Pittsburgh for a 70-68 defeat at the hands of Point Park; Wilmington shot a hot 85 per cent from the field in defeating Urbana 98-80, and Randy Young's 24 points led Ohio Northern to a 76-75 victory over Bethel, Tenn., in the first round of the Troy, Ala., Chamber of Commerce Tournament.

Vulcan Owner Held In Jail In Fraud Case

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Frank Hurn, who owned the now defunct Akron Vulcans of the Continental Football League, is being held in the Summit County Jail without bond awaiting sentencing on eight counts of defrauding an innkeeper.

The FBI arrested him in Miami, Fla., last Tuesday and he was held in the Dade County Jail there on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid arrest.

Royals Acquire John Martinez

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Royals acquired promising young catcher John Martinez Monday in a 3-for-1 interleague baseball trade with the Houston Astros.

Coming to the new Kansas City baseball team along with the 20-year-old Martinez are catcher Tommie Smith and infielder Mike Sinnerud.

FOLLOW THE LEADER—That's what it looks like here as three St. Louis U. players follow the "leader," Dave George of Rutgers, who has the ball. Action is from N.Y. game.

UCLA Holds Top Ranking, But No Longer Unanimous

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

There is a dissenter in the house. Someone has been lured away from the UCLA juggernaut to the Tar Heels of North Carolina.

The Uclans remained No. 1 in The Associated Press poll of the top 20 collegiate basketball teams Monday, but they were not a unanimous choice. UCLA polled 29 first place ballots of the 30 cast, with the other one going to second-ranked North Carolina.

UCLA accumulated 598 points on the basis of 20 points for a first place vote, 18 for second, 16 for third, etc. North Carolina had 542 points for a healthy hold on the No. 2 spot over Davidson, which had 427.

The first eight places in the rankings were unchanged, with Kentucky in fourth place, New Mexico No. 5, Cincinnati sixth, Notre Dame seventh and Villanova No. 8. St. Bonaventure moved up to ninth place and Santa Clara soared from 16th into the top 10 on the basis of victories last week over highly-regarded Houston and San Francisco. The Broncos are 5-0.

The No. 1 ranked Buckeyes also have senior Bill Long, who started as a sophomore and junior, as insurance. Hayes said that if Kern returns to practice he will be held out of all contact work.

Maciejowski and Long filled in capably, sensationally in some cases, in the games and parts of games that Kern missed due to injuries this season. But Kern was the sparkplug of the offense, rushing for 499 yards and completing 66 of 116 passes for 871 yards.

Kern was operated on for a slipped disc last summer but recovered in time to win the starting quarterback job. He missed one of the Buckeyes' nine regular season games with an ankle injury and sat out parts of several other games with a variety of injuries.

Maciejowski started for the injured Kern against Wisconsin and totaled 277 yards running and passing. He also played the entire second half against Michigan State and directed the winning touchdown drive in the Illinois game. For the season, he had 387 yards passing and 192 running.

Long scored the second touchdown in the Bucks' key 13-0 victory over Purdue.

The Buckeyes leave for Los Angeles Friday to continue their preparation for the Rose Bowl.

Bearcats Lose, OSU Barely Wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Cincinnati Bearcats found out Monday night that the city of Los Angeles has a surplus of good basketball players over seven feet tall.

Everyone knows about Lew Alcindor of UCLA, the No. 1 ranked college cage team, and of Wilt Chamberlain of the pro Lakers. The Bearcats met 7-foot-1 Ron Taylor of Southern California, who scored 27 points and grabbed 19 rebounds as the Trojans tarnished UC's No. 6 ranking with an 83-68 defeat.

The Bearcats shot a horrid 20 per cent from the field in the first half and lost center Jim Ard on fouls early in the second half as they went down to their first defeat of the season. Rick Roberson had 21 of his 25 points in the last half, but it was too late.

Ohio State invaded the West Coast with more success Monday night. With Sophomore Jim Clemons scoring the last seven points for the Buckeyes, they pulled out a 75-74 victory over

Washington State.

Dave Sorenson missed a shot and Clemons tapped the ball in with four seconds left to settle the game. Ed Smith set up the winning basket by stealing a Cougar pass. Sorenson led all scorers, with 24 points, and teammate Jody Finney added 18. Clemons scored 14.

In other big games involving Ohio teams, Bowling Green bowled 92-67 to Southeast Conference power Vanderbilt, Akron lost 74-54 to the No. 1 ranked small college team, Kentucky Wesleyan, and Xavier nipped Old Dominion, 72-70.

against BG, which was led by Jim Connolly's 19. George Tinsley scored 25 points to lead Kentucky Wesleyan over Akron, while 6-foot-11 Luther Rackley threw in a jump shot with one second to play to settle Xavier's victory and give him 20 points for the game.

Elsewhere, Ohio Wesleyan traveled to Pittsburgh for a 70-68 defeat at the hands of Point Park; Wilmington shot a hot 65 per cent from the field in defeating Urbana 98-80, and Randy Young's 24 points led Ohio Northern to a 76-75 victory over Bethel, Tenn., in the first round of the Troy, Ala., Chamber of Commerce Tournament.

Vulcan Owner Held In Jail In Fraud Case

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Frank Hurn, who owned the now defunct Akron Vulcans of the Continental Football League, is being held in the Summit County Jail without bond awaiting sentencing on eight counts of defrauding an innkeeper.

The FBI arrested him in Miami, Fla., last Tuesday and he was held in the Dade County Jail there on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid arrest.

Hurn pleaded guilty to the charges here earlier, but failed to appear in Summit County Common Pleas Court for sentencing Oct. 25 as ordered.

Royals Acquire John Martinez

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Royals acquired promising young catcher John Martinez Monday in a 3-for-1 interleague baseball trade with the Houston Astros.

Coming to the new Kansas City baseball team along with the 20-year-old Martinez are catcher Tommie Smith and infielder Mike Sinnerud.

Bob Gibson, Juan Marichal Lead NL Pitching Statistics

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals and Juan Marichal of the San Francisco Giants cleaned up most of the pitching honors in the National League during 1968, official averages showed today.

Steve Blass of the Pittsburgh Pirates took the only other major title. His 18-6 record gave him a .750 winning percentage, tops in the league.

Gibson, who had a 2-1 record in the Cards' losing effort in the World Series with the Detroit Tigers, posted a 1.12 earned run average in 34 games—the lowest in the history of the league. The previous record of 1.22 was by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Philadelphia Phils in 1915.

In addition, Gibson had a 15-game winning streak which stretched from June 2 to Aug. 19.

Gibson had a 22-9 won-lost record for a percentage of .710. He allowed only 11 home runs in 305 innings. He walked only 62

and those included six intentional walks.

Marichal, finishing with 26 - 9 and a .743 percentage, won the most games. The 30 games he completed also topped the league and his 326 innings pitched were high. However, he gave up the most hits—295.

Ferguson Jenkins of the Chicago Cubs made the most starts, 40, and he and teammate Bill Hands yielded 26 home runs, tops in the dubious gopher ball category.

Claude Osteen of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Ray Sadecki of the Giants lost the most games—18 each—as they each posted 12-18 marks.

Ted Abernathy of the Cincinnati Reds made the most appearances, 78. All of his work was in relief and he had a 10-7 won-lost record and 2.47 earned run average.

There were three no-hit games, the first by George Frazier of Cincinnati against Philadelphia July 29. The other two were on successive days in San Francisco—one by Gaylord Perry of the Giants against St. Louis Sept. 17 and the other by Ray Washburn of the Cards against the Giants the next day.

The Cardinals easily won team pitching honors with 63 complete games, 30 shutouts and a combined earned run average of 2.49.

AFL All-Star Eastern Team Features Jets

NEW YORK (AP) — The Eastern champion New York Jets placed eight men, including quarterback Joe Namath and receivers George Sauer and Don Maynard, on the Eastern team today for the American Football League All-Star game Jan. 19.

The players were selected in a poll of coaches. The remaining 11 will be picked by the team's coach, who will be named later this week. The game will be played in Jacksonville, Fla.

Joining Namath, Maynard and Sauer from the Jets are offensive tackle Winston Hill, offensive guard Dave Herman, kicker Jim Turner, and defensive ends Gerry Philbin and Verlon Biggs.

Houston placed seven players on the team, but the other three clubs had a total of only eight.

The rest of the offensive team is tackle Glen Ray Hines, Houston; guard Billy Shaw, Buffalo; center Jon Morris, Boston; tight end Alvin Reed, Houston, and running backs Hoyle Granger, Houston, and Jim Kiick, Miami. Kiick is the only rookie on the team.

The defense also has tackles Jim Dunaway, Buffalo, and Houston Antwine, Boston; linebackers George Webster and Garland Boyette, Houston, and Mike Stratton, Buffalo; cornerbacks Miller Farr, Houston, and George Byrd, Buffalo, and safeties Ken Houston, Houston, and George Salmes, Buffalo.

Ray Nitschke AP Defensive Player

NEW YORK (AP) — The biggest defensive play of the last day of the National Football League season was made by Ray Nitschke of the Green Bay Packers, who intercepted a Jack Cannannon pass in the final minutes to snuff out the Chicago Bears.

Austin Is Fired From Steelers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bill Austin, who brought tight discipline but little else to the free-wheeling Pittsburgh Steelers, has been fired as head coach. Now the National Football League club is on a familiar road-in search of a new coach.

Austin, who tutored under Vince Lombardi and the Green Bay Packers, became coach when Buddy Parker quit the Steelers and retired.

In three years Austin produced an 11-28-3 record and this season the Steelers ended in the Century Division cellar after winning only two games and none against their division opponents. So the Steelers let him go Monday.

Sportsmen Slate Annual Fete Thursday

The Pickaway Farmers and Sportsmen Assn. will hold its annual wild game supper 6 p.m. Thursday at the 4-H and Grange Building.

Dick Redman, secretary of the organization, has asked all members donating game to take it to the Circleville Fire Department this week.

The annual election of officers will be held at the meeting following the supper.

During the meeting, the season winners in the 30 and 22 caliber rifle and the 45 caliber pistol competition will be announced.

The leaders in the club's game contest will be announced, although the contest does not officially end until Jan. 1. Redman noted that he had already received several entries, including bear, moose, deer and pheasant.

UCLA Holds Top Ranking, But No Longer Unanimous

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer

There is a dissenter in the house. Someone has been lured away from the UCLA juggernaut to the Tar Heels of North Carolina.

The Uclans remained No. 1 in The Associated Press poll of the top 20 collegiate basketball teams Monday, but they were not a unanimous choice. UCLA polled 29 first place ballots of the 30 cast, with the other one going to second-ranked North Carolina.

UCLA accumulated 598 points on the basis of 20 points for a first place vote, 18 for second, 16 for third, etc. North Carolina had 542 points for a healthy hold on the No. 2 spot over Davidson, which had 427.

The first eight places in the rankings were unchanged, with Kentucky in fourth place, New Mexico No. 5, Cincinnati sixth, Notre Dame seventh and Villanova No. 8.

St. Bonaventure moved up to ninth place and Santa Clara soared from 16th into the top 10 on the basis of victories last week over highly-regarded Houston and San Francisco. The Broncos are 5-0.

The loss to Santa Clara dropped Houston from 12th to 20th in the rankings, but the Cougars were more fortunate than Duke and Iowa. Duke, ninth a week ago, lost three straight and dropped clear out of sight. Iowa, ranked 19th last week, slipped out of the top 20 when it lost to Wichita State.

Replacing Duke and Iowa in the rankings were New Mexico State and Louisville, both 5-0. State took 14th place and Louisville 19th.

Kansas headed the second 10 with 130 points for 11th place. Purdue was No. 12 and Detroit 13th in front of New Mexico State. In 15th position was Calfornia, up three spots from last week; LaSalle was 16th, a four-place climb; Ohio State was 17th and Western Kentucky 18th in front of Louisville and Houston.

The Top 20, with first-place votes, records and total points.

1. UCLA	29	3-0	698
2. North Carolina	1	4-0	542

Other Pickups Are Not Quite Chevrolets

630 Fleetside Pickup

C20 Fleetside pickup

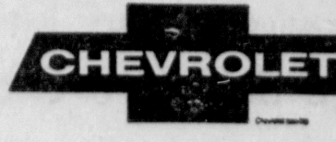

Not quite as handsome. Not quite as strong. Not quite as economical.

Chevrolet is more pickup. Period. And that's for any purpose, work or play. Take Chevy styling, for instance. It looks just as good, just as modern, whether you see it at a campsite or a construction site.

It's the same with Chevy pickup construction. Features like double-wall steel in vital areas, special rust inhibitors, full coil spring ride and tough 6-cylinder or V8 power pay off for you whether you're carrying payloads or playloads.

Because Chevrolet is more pickup . . . more pickups are Chevrolets! It's as simple as that. (And, also, because no truck costs less to own and operate.) So what are you looking for? Tough truck? Camper? Second car? Combination of all three? So come on in and save some money!

Prices Start As Low As $2430.25

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Our Husband,
Dad and DadDad, James Speakman
who passed away 10 months ago
February 15, 1968. It seems it's been so long, today we're thinking of you Jim, as we so often do. We remember all you've done to help our footsteps right and on. God has known the cost. Through weary day and long dark nights. You left behind many broken hearts that loved you very dear. That never did or ever will forget you Jim.
The gift that we send you is not very new, it's worn and it's torn.
But the love that it holds, no words can impart. Dear Dad, on this Christmas we give you our hearts.
Sadly missed by wife, children
and grandchildren

1. Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our relatives, friends
and neighbors for the many acts
of kindness and expressions of sympathy; also for the beautiful
floral tributes received in the passing of our beloved husband and father, Haze W. Ward.
Mrs. Hazel Ward and Daughter,
Viola

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for
the many cards and flowers sent
to me during my recent stay in Grant Hospital and while I am convalescing at the home of my daughter Mrs. Maurice Clum Thurston, Ohio. They all were greatly appreciated, and your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Our Husband,
Dad and DadDad, James Speakman
who passed away 10 months ago
February 15, 1968. It seems it's been
so long today we're thinking of you
Jim, as we so often do. We remember all you've done to guide our footsteps right and only God has known the cost. Through weary days and long dark nights, you left behind many broken hearts that loved you very dear. That never did or ever will forget you Jim.
The gift that we send you is not very new, it's worn and it's torn.
But the love that it holds, no words
can impart. Dear Dad, on this Christmas we give you our hearts.
Sadly missed by wife, children
and grandchildren.

1. Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our relatives, friends
and neighbors for the many acts
of kindness and expressions of sympathy; also for the beautiful
floral tributes received in the passing of our beloved husband and father, Claude I. Ward.
Mrs. Hazel Ward and Daughter,
Viola

I wish to extend my sincere
thanks to friends and neighbors for
the many cards and flowers sent
to me during my recent stay in Grant Hospital and while I am convalescing at the home of my daughter Mrs. Maurice Clum, Thurston, Ohio. They all were all greatly appreciated, and your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
Vesta Heath

TANGERINE BOWL

Davis Cup Round Flop Financially

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — The 57th Davis Cup Challenge Round between the United States and Australia starting here the day after Christmas Day looms as a complete financial flop and, as a result, might be the last played under the present amateur format.

Cup competition probably will have to go open to revive worldwide interest. A move in that direction will be made this weekend in a meeting of the big four tennis powers—the United States, Australia, France and England.

A major blow to Australian sponsors came today with the announcement that the Australian oil firm which backed television coverage in the past was withdrawing from the picture. No television sponsor is available and that is an automatic loss of $12,000.

"It shows how low the tennis image has dropped in Australia," moaned Neville Vickers, Challenge Round chairman.

Season ticket sales for the three-day event December 26-28 went on sale here Monday, and reaction at best was tepid.

Only half of the 7,000 seats were sold for the Memorial Courts, where Arthur Ashe and company will attempt to bring the cup back to America. The Americans are overwhelmingly favored over the Australian team depleted by pro raids.

Court Rules Girl Can Be Jockey

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Florida State Racing Commission was ordered Monday to make Barbara Jo Rubin the state's first girl jockey, or go to court to explain why she should not be licensed.

Circuit Court Judge Jack A. Falk scheduled a show cause hearing for Jan. 15 to let the commission explain its conduct on the application filed last Friday by Miss Rubin, an exercise girl at Tropical Park.

Expect Purge To Hit Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazil's military-dominated government is expected to launch a sweeping purge, stripping hundreds of its opponents of their political rights, after President Arthur da Costa e Silva's first major speech since the suspension of Congress last Friday.

The president told the graduating class of the army staff school and top military leaders Monday night that the housecleaning undertaken following the 1964 revolution "unfortunately" had not been completed. Hundreds lost their political rights after the army overthrew President Joao Goulart in 1964. The leftists were the chief targets then, but now it appears that critics of the military and of the status quo in Brazil are likely to be the marked men.

The current political crisis was precipitated by the refusal of Congress to lift the parliamentary immunity of a deputy who had criticized the military. Prodded by military leaders, Costa e Silva suspended Congress and assumed dictatorial powers.

NEW BALL CZAR?—Reports indicate that Mike Burke (above), head of the Yankees and a CBS vice president, will be the new commissioner of baseball, succeeding Gen. William D. Eckert.

Heading the Ohio U. cast are Cleve Bryant, quarterback, who completed 98 passes of 200 for 1,524 yards; fullback Bob Houmard, who scored 114 points with 19 touchdowns, and outstanding tackle Ken Carmon. Richmond stars are Buster O'Brien, who completed 149 passes in 255 attempts for 1,961 yards and 21 touchdowns; Walter Gillette, star receiver with 50 catches, and back Frank Olejack. O'Brien's eligibility was questioned because he is a graduate student.

Nixon Forces To Go Slow In Changing Great Society

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration apparently plans to put early emphasis on trying to improve Great Society programs and will go slow at first on offering new legislation to the Democratic-controlled congress.

This was the gist of reports on a two-hour closed meeting Monday that brought together Nixon, Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew and 13 Republican leaders of the House and Senate.

The comments of Senate leader Everett R. Dirksen, House leader Gerald R. Ford and others afterward indicated major new legislation will be put off until studies are made of current programs, President Johnson's final recommendations and reports of Nixon's own numerous task forces.

The way appeared to be left open, however, for early Senate consideration of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty if Johnson wishes the issue brought up between Jan. 3, when Congress convenes, and Jan. 20, when Nixon takes office.

During the campaign Nixon spoke of scuttling some Great Society programs, but hasn't said much on the subject since.

Although the Democratic leadership in Congress has pledged its cooperation to the new administration, there have been increasing and thinly veiled warnings that the opposition will not stand still for much tampering.

House Majority Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma said in an interview over the weekend that he didn't think Nixon would try to dismantle the Great Society and that he didn't think the president-elect would be able to anyway.

Calls Deluge Flu Center In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "It's like trying to add apples, elephants and camels."

This was the word from a harassed official of the National Communicable Disease Center which has been deluged with calls from persons worried about Hong Kong flu.

"Some people have colds and some people have something else and it's all being called Hong Kong flu," said George Stenhouse, public information chief of NCDC.

"We're getting calls from mothers with questions they should be asking their doctors," Stenhouse said Monday. "We try to assure them that it (the flu virus) is not a strange and exotic disease and tell them to call their doctor."

But still the calls keep pouring in. "We've got four men answering calls in this office alone and the telephones have been busy all day," the official said.

Stenhouse said the calls aren't just coming from the Atlanta area. "The London Telegraph wants us to tell them how long it will be before the epidemic reaches London, England," he said.

The NCDC says the new flu virus won't reach its peak until at least the first of the year.

Sentence 2 For Holdup

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two Mansfield men have been sentenced to 15 years each in a federal prison on their pleas of guilty to armed robbery of a branch bank in Lorain.

Two others are awaiting sentencing.

Sentenced Monday by U.S. District Judge Frank J. Battisti were Clarence Simmons, 21, and Parnell Jefferson, 19. They had originally pleaded innocent to the $7,402 robbery last April 15 of a branch of the Central Security National Bank of Lorain County. They changed their pleas to guilty last month.

Tommy Lee Holt and J. D. Thomas, also of Mansfield, were convicted by a jury last Wednesday of armed robbery in connection with the bank hold-up. They are being held in the Cuyahoga County Jail while presentence reports are prepared.

Gas Fumes Kill Boy In Canton

Johnny Knetsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Knetsch, died at Aultman Hospital.

Firemen said fumes from the furnace escaped into the house because the chimney was blocked with dirt and the damper was closed.

Hearing Refused In Murder Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lee Arthur Henley, now 21, who was an infant when his father was executed in Arkansas, has been refused a hearing by the U.S. Supreme Court on his first degree murder conviction.

Henley was convicted of the 1964 pistol slaying of a store clerk in the Cincinnati suburb of Madisonville who refused to sell him 6 per cent beer. Henley was 18 when he was convicted in 1965 by a Cincinnati Criminal Court jury and sentenced to die.

Man Given Life In Murder Case

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — John Jenkins, 20, of Alliance was sentenced to life imprisonment Monday night after a Stark County Common Pleas Court jury convicted him of first-degree murder with a recommendation of mercy.

Jenkins was charged with the fatal shooting of his wife, Mary, at an athletic club in Alliance last July 5.

Albert said such an attempt would cost Nixon the cooperation of the Democrats. "The penalty would be too great," he said.

Blaze Fatal To Mother, 5 Children

Scioto County Blast And Fire Being Probed

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A mother and five children perished Monday night when fire destroyed their rural home west of Portsmouth.

Scioto County sheriff's deputies said two other children managed to escape the flames, but were burned.

The victims were identified as Arita Cooper, 40, and children, Danny 14, Frankie 4, Cookie 13, Susie 9 and Jackie 6.

Mickey Cooper, 11, was burned critically and taken to Scioto Memorial Hospital, while her sister, Sharon, 16, received less serious burns.

Authorities said cause of the fire had not been determined. But neighbors reported hearing an explosion just before the fire, which leveled the house within 30 minutes.

Witnesses said Sharon escaped from the flaming house by leaping from a second-story window. They said the mother was believed to have gotten out of the house, but died when she returned in an attempt to rescue the other children.

The State Fire Marshal's office was called into the investigation.

Deputies said the investigation was complicated by the fact that the family had just moved into the house, five miles west of here, Monday morning. Authorities were trying to locate the husband, who apparently was not in the house at the time of the fire and had not been living with the family recently.

County Home Chief Suspended

LISBON, Ohio (AP) — Columbia County Commissioners suspended the superintendent of the county home for six months Monday after they learned Saturday that two cows and a calf had died of malnutrition on the home's farm.

The superintendent, Robert Boyce was suspended but his wife, Gladys Boyce was made superintendent in his place during the suspension.

Eldon Groves, president of the county Humane Society, charged Boyce with poor farm management and others urged commissioners to put the entire county home operation under the care of Donald Hepp, county welfare director.

Bus Fares Hiked

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Steubenville city officials agreed Monday to let the Steubenville Bus Co. raise its fares by a nickel to 35 cents.

Paul Hedges, 22, Route 1, Laurelville, was treated for abrasions of his right hand.

Mrs. Richard Hill, Route 4, was treated for a needle imbedded in the index finger of her right hand.

Rodney Lewis, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lewis, 203 Cedar Heights Road, spilled hot soup on his right upper arm.

Ernest Seymour, 31, Route 4, was bitten on the lower left leg by a dog.

There was considerable discussion of budget matters, but only in general terms, several informants agreed.

Sen. Milton R. Young of North Dakota said the feeling as of now is to continue current education, welfare and similar programs and at the same time see whether efficiency and economy could be improved.

He said the possibility was not eliminated that some programs might later be merged or dropped if this appeared advisable after study.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, who is leaving the House to become secretary of defense, said the budget Johnson will submit in January will be studied, especially in the defense area.

Ford said that while the atmosphere of the meeting favored ending the 10 per cent income tax surcharge as soon as possible, no decision could be made without further attention to the course of the economy, the budget savings that might be achieved and, of course, the prospects of an end to the war in Vietnam.

Nixon Forces To Go Slow In Changing Great Society

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration apparently plans to put early emphasis on trying to improve Great Society programs and will go slow at first on offering new legislation to the Democratic-controlled congress.

This was the gist of reports on a two-hour closed meeting Monday that brought together Nixon, Vice-President-elect Spiro T. Agnew and 13 Republican leaders of the House and Senate.

The comments of Senate leader Everett M. Dirksen, House leader Gerald R. Ford and others afterward indicated major new legislation will be put off until studies are made of current programs, President Johnson's final recommendations and reports of Nixon's own numerous task forces.

The way appeared to be left open, however, for early Senate consideration of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty if Johnson wishes the issue brought up between Jan. 3, when Congress convenes, and Jan. 20, when Nixon takes office.

During the campaign Nixon spoke of scuttling some Great Society programs, but hasn't said much on the subject since.

Although the Democratic leadership in Congress has pledged its cooperation to the new administration, there have been increasing and thinly veiled warnings that the opposition will not stand still for much tampering.

House Majority Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma said in an interview over the weekend that he didn't think Nixon would try to dismantle the Great Society and that he didn't think the president-elect would be able to anyway.

Calls Deluge Flu Center In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "It's like trying to add apples, elephants and camels."

This was the word from a harassed official of the National Communicable Disease Center which has been deluged with calls from persons worried about Hong Kong flu.

"Some people have colds and some people have something else and it's all being called Hong Kong flu," said George Stenhouse, public information chief of NCDC.

"We're getting calls from mothers with questions they should be asking their doctors," Stenhouse said Monday. "We try to assure them that it (the flu virus) is not a strange and exotic disease and tell them to call their doctor."

But still the calls keep pouring in. "We've got four men answering calls in this office alone and the telephones have been busy all day," the official said.

Stenhouse said the calls aren't just coming from the Atlanta area. "The London Telegraph wants us to tell them how long it will be before the epidemic reaches London, England," he said.

The NCDC says the new flu virus won't reach its peak until at least the first of the year.

Sentence 2 For Holdup

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two Mansfield men have been sentenced to 15 years each in a federal prison on their pleas of guilty to armed robbery of a branch bank in Lorain.

Two others are awaiting sentencing.

Sentenced Monday by U.S. District Judge Frank J. Battisti were Clarence Simmons, 21, and Parnell Jefferson, 19. They had originally pleaded innocent to the $7,402 robbery last April 15 of a branch of the Central Security National Bank of Lorain County. They changed their pleas to guilty last month.

Tommy Lee Holt and J. D. Thomas, also of Mansfield, were convicted by a jury last Wednesday of armed robbery in connection with the bank hold-up. They are being held in the Cuyahoga County Jail while pre-sentencing reports are prepared.

Gas Fumes Kill Boy In Canton

Johnny Knetsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Knetsch, died at Aultman Hospital.

Firemen said fumes from the furnace escaped into the house because the chimney was blocked with dirt and the damper was closed.

Man Given Life In Murder Case

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — John Jenkins, 20, of Alliance was sentenced to life imprisonment Monday night after a Stark County Common Pleas Court jury convicted him of first-degree murder with a recommendation of mercy.

Jenkins was charged with the fatal shooting of his wife, Mary, at an athletic club in Alliance last July 5.

Albert said such an attempt would cost Nixon the cooperation of the Democrats. "The penalty would be too great," he said.

Blaze Fatal To Mother, 5 Children

Scioto County Blast And Fire Being Probed

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A mother and five children perished Monday night when fire destroyed their rural home west of Portsmouth.

Scioto County sheriff's deputies said two other children managed to escape the flames, but were burned.

The victims were identified as Arita Cooper, 40, and children, Danny 14, Frankie 4, Cookie 13, Susie 9 and Jackie 6.

Mickey Cooper, 11, was burned critically and taken to Scioto Memorial Hospital, while her sister, Sharon, 16, received less serious burns.

Authorities said cause of the fire had not been determined. But neighbors reported hearing an explosion just before the fire, which leveled the house within 30 minutes.

Witnesses said Sharon escaped from the flaming house by leaping from a second-story window. They said the mother was believed to have gotten out of the house, but died when she returned in an attempt to rescue the other children.

The State Fire Marshal's office was called into the investigation.

Deputies said the investigation was complicated by the fact that the family had just moved into the house, five miles west of here, Monday morning.

Authorities were trying to locate the husband, who apparently was not in the house at the time of the fire and had not been living with the family recently.

County Home Chief Suspended

LISBON, Ohio (AP) — Columbia County Commissioners suspended the superintendent of the county home for six months Monday after they learned Saturday that two cows and a calf had died of malnutrition on the home's farm.

Hearing Refused In Murder Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lee Arthur Henley, now 21, who was an infant when his father was executed in Arkansas, has been refused a hearing by the U.S. Supreme Court on his first-degree murder conviction.

Henley was convicted of the 1964 pistol slaying of a store clerk in the Cincinnati suburb of Madisonville who refused to sell him 6 per cent beer. Henley was 18 when he was convicted in 1965 by a Cincinnati Criminal Court jury and sentenced to die.

Bus Fares Hiked

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Steubenville city officials agreed Monday to let the Steubenville Bus Co. raise its fares by a nickel to 35 cents.

The fare increase is subject to the approval of city council.

campaign he thought then more time should be taken to consider the treaty's implications. But Dirksen said Nixon did not take a firm position Monday on what should be done.

It would be up to Johnson and Democratic Senate Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana to decide whether to try for Senate approval during the interval before the inauguration, Dirksen went on.

But the Republican leader said if he were in Johnson's position "I think before I left public office, I would want to do something about this most hideous of forces." He said he would vote to approve the treaty if it were submitted to the Senate.

There was considerable discussion of budget matters, but only in general terms, several informants agreed.
